

ALAN WILSON
ATTORNEY GENERAL

April 21, 2023

The Honorable Donald W. Beatty
South Carolina Supreme Court
1231 Gervais Street,
Columbia S.C. 29201

Re: State v. Jeroid J. Price

Dear Chief Justice Beatty:

My office appreciates the expedited timeline to have this issue heard next week before the Court. However, the Attorney General's Office is very concerned that Mr. Price is currently under no bond or order of any kind requiring his presence in South Carolina. Based upon the facts laid out in the Writ before the Court, the Attorney General's Office takes the position that the current order releasing Mr. Price is void and therefore his sentence is still in effect.

Mr. Price is not only a danger to the community but a flight risk. We therefore respectfully request that the Court immediately issue a bench warrant to hold Mr. Price until the Court makes a final determination. We appreciate any assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Alan Wilson
