Good morning,

We are having a bit of trouble opening this audio CD file. I have someone from SLED coming today to open it so that we can save it for retention purposes. Stay tuned.

I will look at the Aug. 11 request.

Good Afternoon,

My name is Rachel Daniel and I'm a producer at Fox Carolina News in Greenville, SC for our Midday show that airs weekdays from 11 AM to 12 PM. I work with Grace Runkel and Thomas Gore.

Grace told me that you recently wrote a memoir on the Murdaugh trial.

I'm reaching out to see if you would be willing to come on our Midday show for a live interview talking about your book. This Interview can be over zoom.

We have availability on July 3rd, 5th, or 10th - 13th. For planning purposes, the interview will most likely take place at 11:10 AM or 11:30 AM

Thank you in advance.

Hi Julie!

Absolutely. How exciting! If you come down the week of Aug. 14th, the boat trial is scheduled to begin in Hampton so it's going to be a high profile time, which if you don't mind that, it's a Good thing if you don't mind being around all the excitement period. You can just email me back to let me know closer to time what day you're going to be coming I really look for a lot more tours to take place During this time as well.
Our tours usually take 20 to 40 minutes just depending on how many questions are asked and how much talk goes on we had some people staying for an hour you are welcome to bring your cameras in and your phones to take pictures

If you're interested, I have written a book coming out on August 1st that you can pre-order and You can find it at www.behind the doors of justice.com

Hope to hear from you soon!

Hi Tena,

Yes, my security team is doing tours for anyone who comes and wants one. They do an awesome job. I've copied some of my security team on this email to let them know you and your hubby will be coming. If you would like to let us know what day and time you are coming to give us a head's up, that's always welcome.

We look forward to see you. Also, I have written a book and it will be coming out August 1st. You can go to our website www.behindthedoorsofjustice.com and you can pre=order the book and see pics and read some information on it. Feel free to share the website on social media.

Hi Jeri,

Hope you are doing well. I have 3 new bailiffs who would like to learn more about being a bailiff and duties and I've always appreciated the guys in Beaufort and how they do their job. Would it be possible for my 3 men to come to Beaufort this Friday and observe court, talk to your bailiffs & deputies, learn some things? If court is going on and it wouldn't interfere, that would even be great. I would love for the guys to see Circuit Court going on AND Family Court.

Can you let me know your thoughts and if this is something that could be arranged?

Sincerely,

Dear Jim, Dick and Holli,

I've received your letter regarding exhibits in re: State v. Murdaugh trial in Colleton County. I'm attaching the Dropbox link for Videos and then I will be attaching the Dropbox link for paper exhibits. If you believe there is anything missing, please let me know and we can arrange for a person to come look through the exhibits and scan in and make any copies needed. I will be glad to work with you in any way possible.

Hi Lois!

Hope you are having a good Friday. I am working on deadline this weekend to get my book, Behind the Doors of Justice, to the publisher. Next week will be a few free days if you want to try to schedule supper date! We are free the nights of Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.
Let me know if y'all's schedules would be open to any of those.

Take care!

23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king.

25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the form of the fourth is like the Son of God.

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, came forth of the midst of the fire.

FUNDS IN PROPER FORMAT

Georgia law (O.C.G.A Section 44-14-13, the "Good Funds" law) requires all funds to be received by the closing attorney in excess of $5,000.00 be in the form of a wire. For amounts in between $1,000.00 and $5,000.00, a certified check issued by a local bank will be accepted. If you have any questions regarding these requirements, please contact our office so as to avoid any delay in the disbursement of your closing. In order to disburse on the day of closing, all certified funds or personal checks must be received at least 24 hours before closing.
Personal checks may be accepted for less than $1,000.00 at the sole discretion of the closing attorney. If you need to transmit funds by wire, please contact us for wiring instructions. If you are arranging funds in advance of our preparation of the Settlement Statement, we recommend discussing the estimated amount due at closing with your Lender, then wiring that amount to us. Certified checks, if applicable, should be payable to Enoch Tarver, PC.

Honestly, it was a once in a lifetime learning experience for me. Special thanks to Valerie, who graciously connected us all. I hope that we all cross paths again in the future.

All my best,

I want to thank everyone for everything. Seriously. As one of the elders in the crowd, I was so impressed with everyone I met and said so on my Instagram account, if you'd like to pop over to wapokp. What I said was that I've never worked among any finer journalists in more than 40 years of toiling in the field. I said you made me proud of the work we do. I was there only to write a weekly summary in place of my usual column and am in awe of all of you who were constantly on the go -- writing, broadcasting, tweeting, posting, etc. It was inspiring and fun for me to be around so many rising and already-stars and to break out of my otherwise ordinary life. Back in my domicile in Camden, SC, I confess to feeling a little let down, even if we said we wanted the trial to hurry up and end. (I'm still watching reruns for clues to unanswered questions.)

It was also wonderful to make new friends, with special thanks to the guys who let me invade their reserved spaces (you know who you are); to the fabulous and gracious Valerie, without whom we'd have had much less fun; to John Monk for being John Monk; to the FitsNews gang for babysitting my phone and offering me a spot to rest my heels; to all the young women who made wish I were young again. If I can ever do anything for any of you, please reach out -- text is the best way to reach me (202.812.1202) And if you're every inclined to visit South Carolina's oldest inland city, I'll treat you to a cocktail on the porch and a tour of the city Sherman couldn't burn down because . . . it rained. Cheers, Kathleen

Thank you so much, to Val, Becky, Joe and everyone else involved in arranging these upcoming events. The camaraderie, respect and friendship that has continually been in good supply in Walterboro has helped offset the heaviness and tragedy of the story (or at least made a big dent).

As the trial winds down I’m glad for these upcoming opportunities to reflect and cut loose with so many new buddies. Thanks for going the extra mile and setting these plans in motion! See many of you soon and please of course reach out for help if there’s non-obvious ways any of us can pitch in.

Val, thanks for the fun event Monday, God knows we need it. I have also expressed to Becky Hill our need to thank her and her staff for all their kindnesses. I have planned (with her) a thank you party/press mixer to honor her and her staff Wednesday evening and will provide drinks(within reason because I know journalists) and will have a food truck at the ready. Becky's very talented singer/ songwriter daughter will perform with congregation and music beginning around 7:30- when you all ought to be switching off your lights and retiring pencils. Sponsored by the Stockholm Syndrome Group and my law firm. Cheers and rest up. Joe Y'all. It sounds so strange to say, but it has been a joy to share this bunker with you. Here's hoping we can all get together for a toast and some fellowship next week.

Monday is my birthday, and (the inimitable and awesome) Becky Hill has a birthday a few days after that. So, please join us at my place on Monday for CAKE (thanks, Becky!), beer, pizza and whatever else we can scrounge up between now and then.

Who: Press corps, lawyers and friends of the court. Please reach out to those I missed inadvertently! Just lmk so we can order enough for all.

What: CAKE, beer and pizza (and almost certainly Ruffles and French Onion dip and something else French because Arthur is coming)

Where: 580 Avant Road, Walterboro

When: Monday, whenever you're off deadline

How: my Air BNB is at the end of a mile-long dirt road. It's raining cats and dogs this minute, sooo...

a) if you have an SUV or truck, have at it or hop in with someone who does.
b) drive as far as the gate, park and walk if you feel like it and the sun's still out.
c) park at the gate and call me at 404.433.2293 and someone will come fetch you. If you don't believe me, ask Drew. Apparently he was back here drinking beer in high school!

With thanks,
Val

I can write a cover blurb to say, The world had an opportunity to observe how a notorious murder trial is to be conducted in the public eye. Credit goes to Judge Clifton Newman, Becky Hill and their support staff. Beck's account reveals the perspective of one who was in the room where it happened.

I received a call this morning from Carol Gable who works with NBC. They will be using our meeting room on Wednesday morning for an interview with Becky Hill (Clerk of Court). I was told that the camera crew is coming and will have a bunch of equipment to set up in the meeting room.

The camera crew should be here at 9 a.m. to set up. The interview is at 11 a.m. and they should be out of there by 1p.m.

In case things get a little chaotic Wednesday morning, I am giving you a heads up.

Hi Rebecca,

How are you?

I would like to know whether you could send me the bodycam video showing Alex talking about what happened.

Can you let me know?

And we are also looking for 911 call made by Murdaugh from murder scene. If you have those, can you also send me?

We are looking forward to receive the defense exhibits as well!

Thank you very much!

Miho,

The Buford McDowel Bodycam should not have gone to you. Please get rid of it and do not use it. The Judge, Judge Newman, specifically ordered that that Bodycam not be used if it got out. Apparently it is still on the videos that are saved.

I appreciate your attention to this.

Hi Rebecca,

Thank you very much for your great cooperation!

I will wait for those more materials and please send them to me.

I could download all of them you've kindly sent to Maki. Thank you very much.

I quickly check them and have a few questions.

The folder "MURDAUGH VIDOES", we have one bodycam video titled "Buford McDowell Bodycam Video", but it seems it's missing another bodycam video showing Alex talking about what happened (you could see this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nLAQtGBMslU).

Can you send this video as well?

And in the folder "Transfer", there is "Photos Library", which has photos showing some party held at the Rockefeller Center, and it seems it's not related. (or related??)

I really appreciate it if you could check it again and let me know if you have other "Photos library" which related to this case.

Thank you very much!!

Mr. Mike Atwood,

Good afternoon.

My name is Shiori Sameshima and I work at TopSpin Creative Corporation, a Japanese television production company in New York City. Currently, we are working with Fuji Television Network, one of the major networks in Japan, in producing a documentary program entitled “Amazing Stories.”

PROGRAM;
Title: Amazing Stories (Unbelievable)
Media: standard TV by Fuji Television Network, geographically restricted streaming (free non-subscription platform)
Territory: Japan only
Term: Twice in 2 years for TV broadcast, with 1 week (occasionally 1 month) of streaming each time.
This primetime weekly documentary series has featured interesting stories from around the world to educate, amaze, and inspire Japanese audiences for more than 20 years. The program is composed of actual footage, interviews, and brief reenactment scenes, as well as positive discussions among Japanese panels in the studio following the stories. Typically, shows introduce two to three stories in one hour.

We will feature the "Murdaugh Murder” Mystery in the upcoming segment and we would like to obtain any available court documents including photos/videos etc.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files?

Thank you for taking your time and let me know if you need any additional information required.

Since it’s a bit urgent, we hope to hear back from you very soon.

Thanks,

Hi Rebecca,

Thank you very much for your great cooperation!

I will wait for those more materials and please send them to me.

I could download all of them you've kindly sent to Maki. Thank you very much.

I quickly check them and have a few questions.

The folder "MURDAUGH VIDOES", we have one bodycam video titled "Buford McDowell Bodycam Video", but it seems it's missing another bodycam video showing Alex talking about what happened (you could see this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nLAQtGBMslU).

Can you send this video as well?

And in the folder "Transfer", there is "Photos Library", which has photos showing some party held at the Rockefeller Center, and it seems it's not related. (or related??)

I really appreciate it if you could check it again and let me know if you have other "Photos library" which related to this case.

Thank you very much!!

Mr. Mike Atwood,

Good afternoon.

My name is Shiori Sameshima and I work at TopSpin Creative Corporation, a Japanese television production company in New York City. Currently, we are working with Fuji Television Network, one of the major networks in Japan, in producing a documentary program entitled “Amazing Stories.”

PROGRAM;
Title: Amazing Stories (Unbelievable)
Media: standard TV by Fuji Television Network, geographically restricted streaming (free non-subscription platform)
Territory: Japan only
Term: Twice in 2 years for TV broadcast, with 1 week (occasionally 1 month) of streaming each time.
This primetime weekly documentary series has featured interesting stories from around the world to educate, amaze, and inspire Japanese audiences for more than 20 years. The program is composed of actual footage, interviews, and brief reenactment scenes, as well as positive discussions among Japanese panels in the studio following the stories. Typically, shows introduce two to three stories in one hour.

We will feature the "Murdaugh Murder” Mystery in the upcoming segment and we would like to obtain any available court documents including photos/videos etc.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files?

Thank you for taking your time and let me know if you need any additional information required.

Since it’s a bit urgent, we hope to hear back from you very soon.

Thanks,

Shiori

Subject: [Follow-up] Japanese TV Inquiry / Court documents etc. for Murdaugh Trial

Hello,

My name is Maki Nakada. I took over this project from my colleague, Shiori.

We would like to obtain any documents regarding to Alex Murdaugh cases. Would you please let us know how we could request documents?

We would sincerely appreciate it. Looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Best,

Maki Nakada

Good afternoon.

I'm following up on our inquiry sent to you a while ago regarding the Murdaugh cases.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files regarding the case?

Thanks,

Shiori

Mr. Mike Atwood,

Good afternoon.

My name is Shiori Sameshima and I work at TopSpin Creative Corporation, a Japanese television production company in New York City. Currently, we are working with Fuji Television Network, one of the major networks in Japan, in producing a documentary program entitled “Amazing Stories.”

PROGRAM;
Title: Amazing Stories (Unbelievable)
Media: standard TV by Fuji Television Network, geographically restricted streaming (free non-subscription platform)
Territory: Japan only
Term: Twice in 2 years for TV broadcast, with 1 week (occasionally 1 month) of streaming each time.
This primetime weekly documentary series has featured interesting stories from around the world to educate, amaze, and inspire Japanese audiences for more than 20 years. The program is composed of actual footage, interviews, and brief reenactment scenes, as well as positive discussions among Japanese panels in the studio following the stories. Typically, shows introduce two to three stories in one hour.

We will feature the "Murdaugh Murder” Mystery in the upcoming segment and we would like to obtain any available court documents including photos/videos etc.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files?

Thank you for taking your time and let me know if you need any additional information required.

Since it’s a bit urgent, we hope to hear back from you very soon.

Thanks,

Shiori

Hi Carl!

Dateline did secure another location. I had recommended the library because I'm fond of it and the location and the conf room. So thank you for trying.

I would love to set up a book signing and talk. Thank you so much for reaching out! Let me get my hands on my schedule and get back to you. I should have books in hand by August 1st. I will be happy to donate one to our li brary. ??. I will also have the book on audio.

Thanks again, and I will reach out to you by in the morning !

Hi Brandy,

Here are the answers to your questions:

I spoke with our underwriter. She only has 1 carrier that will quote E&O coverage for an author. Please provide the following information for us.

1. Name of LLC -- Wind River Media, LLC
2. Physical and mailing address - 522 Dowling Avenue, Walterboro, SC 29488
3. Estimated revenue - $200,000
4. Email address twhill1528@gmail.com
5. Social media address www.behindthedoorsofjustice.com

Let me know if the above info is correct and sufficient.

Thank you!!

Becky,

I love it. Great work. I have just a couple of suggestions or questions, mostly of the copyediting variety:

In the preface you reference “his other son” without having mentioned that Alex is on trial for killing his wife and one son
Also in the preface you mention family and refer to it later as “them” I think if you said family members them would be correct, but since family is a singular unit it is appropriately referred to as it
Are the sheriffs involved in the moonshine conspiracy dead? If alive, make certain your characterizations match the actual court record
With respect to Gloria Satterfield you refer to her years of service to the family in two ways “long-time” and “longtime” I would go with the latter but urge consistency
The email to the chief justice could use a little more context, what did the email to you say that provoked the email to the chief?
Your words regarding me are too kind.
My wife spells Anne with an e

Congratulations and best wishes.

Hello Miho!

We are trying to work on scanning in the defense exhibits. We have had criminal court this week and have to do it before and after court. My hope is to have it completed by tomorrow early afternoon period We will also try to have videos you are requesting as well.

Thank you for your patience in this matter period I do apologize for all of the delays.

Miho,

The Buford McDowel Bodycam should not have gone to you. Please get rid of it and do not use it. The Judge, Judge Newman, specifically ordered that that Bodycam not be used if it got out. Apparently it is still on the videos that are saved.

I appreciate your attention to this.

Hi Rebecca,

Thank you very much for your great cooperation!

I will wait for those more materials and please send them to me.

I could download all of them you've kindly sent to Maki. Thank you very much.

I quickly check them and have a few questions.

The folder "MURDAUGH VIDOES", we have one bodycam video titled "Buford McDowell Bodycam Video", but it seems it's missing another bodycam video showing Alex talking about what happened (you could see this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nLAQtGBMslU).

Can you send this video as well?

And in the folder "Transfer", there is "Photos Library", which has photos showing some party held at the Rockefeller Center, and it seems it's not related. (or related??)

I really appreciate it if you could check it again and let me know if you have other "Photos library" which related to this case.

Thank you very much!!

Mr. Mike Atwood,

Good afternoon.

My name is Shiori Sameshima and I work at TopSpin Creative Corporation, a Japanese television production company in New York City. Currently, we are working with Fuji Television Network, one of the major networks in Japan, in producing a documentary program entitled "Amazing Stories."

PROGRAM;
Title: Amazing Stories (Unbelievable)
Media: standard TV by Fuji Television Network, geographically restricted streaming (free non-subscription platform)
Territory: Japan only
Term: Twice in 2 years for TV broadcast, with 1 week (occasionally 1 month) of streaming each time.
This primetime weekly documentary series has featured interesting stories from around the world to educate, amaze, and inspire Japanese audiences for more than 20 years. The program is composed of actual footage, interviews, and brief reenactment scenes, as well as positive discussions among Japanese panels in the studio following the stories. Typically, shows introduce two to three stories in one hour.

We will feature the "Murdaugh Murder" Mystery in the upcoming segment and we would like to obtain any available court documents including photos/videos etc.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files?

Thank you for taking your time and let me know if you need any additional information required.

Since it's a bit urgent, we hope to hear back from you very soon.

Thanks,

Shiori

Hello,

I'm just circling back to confirm your interview for this Monday, July 24th at 11:30 AM.
If you have any pictures that you would like to use during the interview, please send them my way.
Here is the information again that you will need for the interview:
With it being an 11:30 AM interview, please log into zoom at 11:20 AM. Our anchor Hayley will let you in the chatroom at around 11:26 AM.
If you need me to resend the zoom link, just let me know.

Will Becky prefer to be called Becky or Rebecca during the interview?

If you can agree to this waiver to give us permission to use any pictures or videos that you send for the interview. You can just reply "Accept" to this email.

We'd like to use these photos. To allow this, please reply "ACCEPT." By accepting, you certify that you have the full right to license the photos, you are over 18, and you agree to our terms of use at https://www.foxcarolina.com/terms-of-service/

Hello,

Yes, I did get your separate email and just responded to it.

Unfortunately, we do not have a show on August 1st due to the FIFA game.

Two other dates that are available are July 17th or 24th (both a Monday). For planning purposes, the interview will take place either at 11:10 or 11:30 AM.

Again, I apologize with any inconveniences. I appreciate you both making this work.

Thank you.

Hello!

I apologize for just now responding. Looking forward to having you on our show!

I just found out today that our Midday anchor, Hayley, will be off July 10th - 13th. I am so sorry about this.

Is there another day that we can work out? We have availability on July 7th if that can work.

Again, I apologize for changing the date.

Subject: Unit Cost Report - Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 2019

Dear Ms. Grant:

Our office has performed a mathematical check of all schedules for your cost report dated November 13, 2019. We also briefly looked at the schedules submitted for items listed that may appear to be non-allowable in accordance with applicable Federal regulations or improperly entered. We have not reviewed or audited your cost report and offer no opinion as to your County's compliance with the 'Uniform Guidance; 45 CFR, Part 75, Subpart E – Cost Principles' and any other applicable regulations.

The following adjustments have been made to your report:

Schedule	Remarks	Adjustment	Adjusted Total
A	Amounts from schedules G and H were not carried over to schedule A.		G: $104,351 H: 25,655
D	Per conversation with Terri Babb on 1/6/2020, the actual postage amount for FYE is $8,836.39 instead of $88,763.15. The courthouse carpet and vehicle should be included in schedule E.		$ 81,836
E	The depreciation for the courthouse carpet, purchased on 1/2019 (per Terri Babb), with 6 months of useful life for FYE 2019 and 45% child support allocation is calculated to be $707.63. The depreciation for the Chevy Trailblazer, purchased on 11/2018(per Terri Babb), with 8 months of useful life for FYE 2019 and 35% child support allocation is calculated to be $913.14		$1,621
F	With the adjustments made, 10% 'de minimus' rate is calculated to be $37,888.00		$ 37,888

Your office has ten (10) days to object to the adjustment we made from the date of this letter. Your objection should cite the item, the reason for the objection and the appropriate criteria from the Federal regulations. We will promptly let you know the results of our review of any exception brought to our attention. Once all issues are resolved, the adjustments will become a permanent part of your certified report.

I can be reached at: (803) 898-9485 or E-Mail: chae.encarnacion@dss.sc.gov if you have any questions or if we can be of further service. Thank you for your cooperation and prompt attention to this matter.

Mr. Mike Atwood,

Good afternoon.

My name is Shiori Sameshima and I work at TopSpin Creative Corporation, a Japanese television production company in New York City. Currently, we are working with Fuji Television Network, one of the major networks in Japan, in producing a documentary program entitled "Amazing Stories."

PROGRAM;
Title: Amazing Stories (Unbelievable)

Media: standard TV by Fuji Television Network, geographically restricted streaming (free non-subscription platform)
Territory: Japan only
Term: Twice in 2 years for TV broadcast, with 1 week (occasionally 1 month) of streaming each time.
This primetime weekly documentary series has featured interesting stories from around the world to educate, amaze, and inspire Japanese audiences for more than 20 years. The program is composed of actual footage, interviews, and brief reenactment scenes, as well as positive discussions among Japanese panels in the studio following the stories. Typically, shows introduce two to three stories in one hour.

We will feature the "Murdaugh Murder" Mystery in the upcoming segment and we would like to obtain any available court documents including photos/videos etc.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files?

Thank you for taking your time and let me know if you need any additional information required.

Since it's a bit urgent, we hope to hear back from you very soon.

Thanks,

Shiori

Hello Becky,

How are you doing? Just wanted to take some news. And also do you think you would have time for a call sometime in the coming weeks maybe? I might have a few questions and would like to check a few details with you. Please let me know what would be the best for you.

Best wishes,

Arthur

Hi Becky,

I'm scared it might be a bit complicated to make sushi, I know how to do it with certain specific products and I would not want to disappoint ! But just in case :
- raw salmon
- raw tuna
- rice for sushi
- rice vinegar
- mirin
- wasabi
- nori seaweed
- sake
- cucumber
- avocado
- soy sauce
- kumbu (it is another seaweed, not necessary though)
- a bamboo sushi rolling mat

Otherwise, I have other recipes in my pocket and don't mind going to Walmart to buy the ingredients !

See you later,

Arthur

I will be staying at the Baymont by Wyndham Inn and Suites for the first week, I'm not sure yet for the following days, but of course, any recommendations will be more than welcome, I will check on the court website.

I think I filled in my form stating I would need to be there from the 23rd until the 8th of February, do you think I should resend my form with the new dates ?

I can stay longer than what I mentioned, that is not a problem. Besides I would like to describe life in Hampton County after the trial and how things will get back to normal, so I will probably postpone my flight.

Do you think we could meet on the 19th of the 20th ?

I would definitely be eager to discuss the case with you, and indeed I may have a few questions about my stay in Walterboro - to be very honest, this is the first time I'm covering such a trial in the U.S. so your advice would be extremely precious. Would you have a bit of time in the coming weeks to talk about it on the phone or on zoom, whatever is more convenient for you ?

Before I print, fill and sign the form properly, I quickly filled it on Google doc, could you please tell me if I need to put extra informations - just want to be sure I'm not writing any mistake ? The photo camera is not essential, if this is a problem, I could simply use my laptop and a notepad.

Thank you very much for your help, and looking forward to hearing from you.

I took French in high school and college, but rarely use it anymore; I don't want to appear deceitful because my use of this language that I love is so very limited.

So good to hear from you. I've attached the form that you will just need to fill out and email back to me. The courtroom holds 234 people, and the trial attendance will be on a first come, first serve basis.

If you plan to stay in Walterboro, I can recommend some places to stay.

I think your book idea is great. Now is the time. I am also interested in writing a book. I have lived among the Murdaughs and worked with them and am kind of the "feet on the ground" so to speak. If you're interested in a partnership, let me know!

Colleton County

Clerk of Court

Good afternoon.

I'm following up on our inquiry sent to you a while ago regarding the Murdaugh cases.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files regarding the case?

Thanks,

Shiori

Mr. Mike Atwood,

Good afternoon.

My name is Shiori Sameshima and I work at TopSpin Creative Corporation, a Japanese television production company in New York City. Currently, we are working with Fuji Television Network, one of the major networks in Japan, in producing a documentary program entitled "Amazing Stories."

PROGRAM;
Title: Amazing Stories (Unbelievable)
Media: standard TV by Fuji Television Network, geographically restricted streaming (free non-subscription platform)
Territory: Japan only
Term: Twice in 2 years for TV broadcast, with 1 week (occasionally 1 month) of streaming each time.
This primetime weekly documentary series has featured interesting stories from around the world to educate, amaze, and inspire Japanese audiences for more than 20 years. The program is composed of actual footage, interviews, and brief reenactment scenes, as well as positive discussions among Japanese panels in the studio following the stories. Typically, shows introduce two to three stories in one hour.

We will feature the "Murdaugh Murder" Mystery in the upcoming segment and we would like to obtain any available court documents including photos/videos etc.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files?

Thank you for taking your time and let me know if you need any additional information required.

Since it's a bit urgent, we hope to hear back from you very soon.

Thanks,

Shiori

Good afternoon, Tena,

We can do a tour this week; it would probably need to be on the early side, like 8:00 to 8:30 am. We have Criminal Court this week and have a trial, so in order to see the courtroom and the jury room and the holding cell, it would need to be early.

I'm copying my security on this email also, Tracy Horvath. She may have some other recommendations as well.

Thank you for your interest and for checking in .

The books will be arriving by tomorrow!! We are ready for when they arrive to sign your book and ship it out immediately! Our private printer for the pre-ordered books is right on time, but Amazon got ahold of the earlier than anticipated and began the sale of books as well. But yours will be personally signed! Anything special you want written with the signature?? Just let me know!

Hi both,

The updated Murdaugh text is at CPS 64645725, with photos.

The text is also pasted below for reference.

Thank you!

On the twelfth day of his murder trial, Alex Murdaugh looked bored.

Mr Murdaugh sat hunched at the defence table in the second-floor courtroom of the Colleton County Courthouse in Walterboro, South Carolina. He wore a dark blue suit, white shirt, and no tie, his thin, rimless glasses perched on the very end of his nose. Sometimes he looked up at the witnesses speaking ahead of him, but mostly he looked down. Months in prison had whittled down his formerly heavy frame. Once a towering figure, now Alex Murdaugh looked small.

Mr Murdaugh, 54, was on trial in Walterboro for heinous crimes - execution-style killings of his wife Maggie and his son Paul in their family home. Two rows behind him in the courtroom sat his other son, 25-year-old Buster, the only surviving member of Mr Murdaugh's immediate family. Amid all the spectacle of the trial - the out of town licence plates, food trucks and media vans crowding this small city - Buster sat quietly every day in support of his father. Behind him, on the rear wall of the courtroom, there was a rectangular-shaped sun stain where a painting used to be - a portrait of his namesake, his great-grandfather Rudolph "Buster" Murdaugh, which had been taken down for the trial.

For nearly a century, the Murdaugh family dominated this rural pocket of South Carolina - a flat expanse of marshlands, palm trees, white clapboard churches and porch-ringed houses. Three generations of Murdaugh men had served as chief prosecutor of the local judicial circuit, a 3,200 square mile stretch in the state's south, while running a private litigation firm that made them rich.

But according to prosecutors, Mr Murdaugh was stealing from that firm - millions of dollars over a decade. The murders of his wife and son, they allege, were a desperate attempt to distract from those financial crimes, which were nearing exposure in another case - a wrongful death suit involving Paul. He has pleaded not guilty to the murders.

Since his first arrest in September 2021, Mr Murdaugh's case has become a bizarre and twisted saga, featuring allegations of embezzlement, drug abuse, and a faked assassination attempt. But it has also exposed the apparently unchecked power of the Murdaugh family in their small community in South Carolina, and brought about the undoing of a local dynasty.

"This is what happens when average people have no checks and balances," said Bill Nettles, former US Attorney for South Carolina.

"And there were no checks and balances on him."

To know South Carolina's Lowcountry is to know the Murdaugh family name. For 86 unbroken years, 1920 to 2006, a Murdaugh presided as the chief prosecutor for South Carolina's Fourteenth Judicial Circuit. It was the longest such stretch of family control in United States history.

"They were the law," Mr Nettles said.

For even longer, the Murdaughs worked at the family-founded litigation firm, amassing a small fortune and building out their dominance in all corners of the Lowcountry.

Along the highways in this part of the state, large billboards are posted on almost every mile. Most were for fast food restaurants and prayer hotlines, but many were for personal injury law firms - a thriving industry in the Lowcountry. And by all accounts, the Murdaugh's firm - Peters, Murdaugh, Parker, Eltzroth & Detrick (PMPED) - was the best.

"They could get a verdict that would exceed the norm dramatically," said South Carolina lawyer Joe McCulloch, who has faced three generations of Murdaughs in court.

"And when I say exceed the norm - they could turn a $100,000 case into a million dollar settlement."

The Murdaugh's judicial circuit became known as a mecca for plaintiffs, spurring rumours of judicial corruption and jury tampering. At the very least, locals said, the Murdaugh's stature gave them the upper hand in trial.

"When people graduated high school, they would send gifts, they paid for funerals, sent flowers to people who were in the hospital," said Eric Bland, a malpractice attorney based in South Carolina, who was involved in a suit against Mr Murdaugh.

"When they got in front of juries, they knew them," he said. "They salted the town with goodwill."

The rail company CSX Transportation was sued so often and so successfully by PMPED that the firm's office became known as the house that CSX built. And corporations who could avoid it reportedly skipped the area entirely.

From these two offices, as both public prosecutors and private attorneys, the Murdaughs established themselves as a de facto authority of the Lowcountry. Their influence was not wide - it did not even span the width of the state - but it was deep. In the small, insular community where they lived, residents said, the Murdaugh family ruled.

"They controlled this area for years and years," said Wally Pregnall, a retired administrator at the Medical University of South Carolina, who had driven from Charleston to see the trial up close. "The connection to the good ol' boys network, the power and the politics in South Carolina… that's all coming into play."

"We all knew them," said one waitress in town, who also didn't want to give her name, saying she didn't want to "get in trouble" for speaking out of turn. She also didn't want to be recorded. "You're just going to have to remember this," she said. "They had power, dirty power. And they took it too far."

In the third week of the trial, the former chief financial officer of PMPED Jeanne Seckinger described Alex Murdaugh's approach as a lawyer. "The art of bullshit, basically," she said.

Mr Murdaugh joined the family firm in the late 1990s, the fourth generation of his family's legal dynasty. He was successful, "not from his work ethic", Ms Seckinger said, "but his ability to establish relationships and manipulate people into settlements and clients into liking him."

According to colleagues, he was a loud and frenetic presence, always late and always in a rush, keeping different hours from the rest of the attorneys.

State and federal prosecutors - supported by testimony from Ms Seckinger and others - now say Mr Murdaugh was stealing from the firm, robbing colleagues and clients as early as 2011. Since the murders, he has been criminally charged with stealing about $8.8m (£7.31m) from a number of victims and has been disbarred. Friends have testified Mr Murdaugh has confessed to financial wrongdoing, but he has not yet entered a plea in those cases.

The prosecutors' arguments paint a picture of fraud and theft at an almost implausible scale, and of a perpetrator convinced of his impunity. Mr Murdaugh, they allege, stole indiscriminately from colleagues and clients, the young and old, the disabled and sick.

"You look at it from afar and say 'this is not possible', there has to be something to prevent abuses and improprieties that ridiculous," said veteran journalist and South Carolina University professor Randy Covington. "But the answer is no, there wasn't."

At trial, Ms Seckinger detailed at least a dozen of these crimes. Her more than three hours of testimony began to sound like a record on loop. "Alex stole it", she said, again and again. To her right, a weary-looking bailiff appeared to fall asleep, gun still holstered to his hip.

According to the prosecution, Mr Murdaugh's exact methods varied. Sometimes he faked signatures, other times he claimed inflated expenses. He syphoned millions by impersonating a legitimate insurance company.

"Everybody just assumed they were the Murdaughs so they must be doing it right," Mr Nettles said.

For years, Ms Seckinger testified, she had noticed yellow flags, small irregularities in his files. But the firm was a "brotherhood", she said. "They trusted him."

Tony Satterfield trusted Mr Murdaugh too. When Mr Satterfield's mother, Gloria - the Murdaugh's housekeeper for 20 years - died after a fall at work, Mr Murdaugh recommended a lawyer he knew who could help them file a wrongful death suit against him.

Two of Mr Murdaugh's insurance policies paid out a total of $4.3m, but the Satterfields did not receive a dime. They did not even know the case had been settled. Alex Murdaugh, in conjunction with the lawyer he recommended, had kept it himself.

"I feel like if someone had paid closer attention, they would have figured this out," said Eric Bland, the malpractice lawyer who represented the Satterfields against Mr Murdaugh. "But those kids revered the Murdaughs, they trusted him."

One year after Gloria Satterfield died, there was another fatal accident in the Murdaugh family orbit.

Late in the evening of 24 February 2019, Paul Murdaugh was aboard the family boat when it rammed headlong into the Archers Creek Bridge in Beaufort, throwing three of the six passengers - all young adults - into the cold water below. One of them, 19-year-old Mallory Beach, was killed, her body recovered days later in a marsh several miles away.

The tragedy would present a problem that Alex Murdaugh could not contain.

At the time of impact, according to all of the other passengers, Paul had been driving. A blood test would find the 19-year-old Murdaugh's blood alcohol level was three times the legal limit.

Taken together, witness testimony from the night - from the survivors, authorities, and hospital staff - renders an image of Mr Murdaugh hellbent on insulating his son. He roamed from room to room, they said, trying to speak to the teenagers. A nurse said he looked like he was trying to "orchestrate something". One passenger, Connor Cook, testified he was told by Mr Murdaugh "to keep my mouth shut". He was scared, he said, "them being who they are".

"It was a test of the system," said Mandy Mattney, a reporter based in South Carolina who has led coverage of the Murdaughs since the 2019 crash. "Everyone in Hampton really believed that Paul wouldn't be charged."

For two months, he wasn't. But the other survivors would all eventually testify that Paul was behind the wheel and in April 2019, he was charged with three crimes, including boating under the influence resulting in death. Looking back now, it may have been the moment Alex Murdaugh's life began to unravel.

The family of Mallory Beach hired a lawyer named Mark Tinsley to represent them in a wrongful death suit against Mr Murdaugh. Mr Tinsley, who is bearded and gruff, testified he planned to hold Mr Murdaugh "personally responsible" and seek millions in damages.

Mr Murdaugh claimed he was broke. "I didn't believe it," Mr Tinsley said.

So Mr Tinsley filed a motion to compel Mr Murdaugh to disclose his finances. A hearing on the matter was scheduled for 10 June, 2021. The disclosure would reveal his years of corporate fraud.

"The fuse was lit," Mr Tinsley said.

On 7 June 2021, three days before the hearing on his finances was scheduled, Alex Murdaugh called 911. His wife Maggie and son Paul had been shot, he said.

By the time the first sheriff's deputy had arrived at the family's 1,700 acre hunting estate, Moselle, Mr Murdaugh had a theory. "My son was in a boat wreck months back; he's getting threats," he said. "I know that's what it is."

Many in the Lowcountry believed him. Colleagues and friends testified they feared for Alex and his older son, Buster, thinking they both might be in danger. Mr Tinsley's case was over. "If Alex was the victim of a vigilante, nobody's going to hold him accountable," he said in court. "Sympathies had changed."

But three months later, Mr Murdaugh called 911 again, this time to report he had been shot in the head on the side of a rural road. He later admitted to arranging a botched hit on himself so that Buster could collect on his life insurance. As the ploy fell apart, PMPED disclosed they had pushed him out of the firm the day before the incident over alleged embezzlement. An investigation would later reveal he had first been confronted about missing money by CFO Jeanne Seckinger on 7 June - the day Maggie and Paul were killed. Mr Murdaugh issued a statement apologising and entered a drug rehab programme in another state.

In July 2022, Mr Murdaugh was arrested in the killings.

For five weeks now, the Murdaugh family's sordid downfall has drawn early morning crowds to the Walterboro courthouse, a line too long to fit inside. Upstairs, in the courtroom's cool air, spectators in suits and sundresses filled row after row of the dark wooden pews that line the room. At times, the atmosphere felt strangely like a church reception, Mr Murdaugh's brothers and son milling around, offering handshakes and weak smiles.

In this room, at least, sympathies have changed again. In the court of public opinion, Alex Murdaugh has lost. "He did it. I don't think it's even a question," said Deborah Brinkley, who had travelled two hours from Aiken, South Carolina to watch the proceedings.

But for a century, the Murdaugh family has made an ally out of juries, walking out of courtrooms with the judgments that built their fortune and cemented their influence. Alex Murdaugh's fate will be decided the same way, perhaps a final test of his sway in a case where all the evidence is circumstantial - there was no murder weapon found, no blood on Mr Murdaugh's t-shirt that night, no eyewitnesses to the killings.

And observers in Walterboro have speculated that Mr Murdaugh will take the stand and argue for his innocence himself.

"He still believes he still has the power to convince and manipulate regular people, like the jury," Ms Matney said. "And at the end of the day it comes down to them."

Hello,

The Murdaugh text is copied below and at this google doc: https://docs.google.com/document/d/1Ssk-nCuuDqP44eCmZhzAXBtdonjxZ_4sxPsX3J8Jeil/edit?usp=sharing

I have started a CPS file shell: 64645725

The court clerk just gave me access to the pool photos, which are great. Lots of Murdaugh and several of the characters I have in the story. https://www.flickr.com/photos/197478431@N03/

I have a freelance photographer in the area who is available but I think these will go a long way.

I will check in on Friday and can take up edits/production then or over the weekend. Scheduling the piece next week would be smart – we will catch the traffic around closing arguments etc but will still be ahead of a verdict. And there are rumours that the defence will call Alex to the stand which would add fantastic colour to the the story, particularly the end.

Thanks very much both, I'm so pleased I was able to go last week!

He has pleaded not guilty to the murders.

Since his first arrest in September 2021, Mr Murdaugh's case has become a bizarre and twisted saga, featuring allegations of embezzlement, drug abuse and a faked assassination attempt. But it has also exposed the apparently unchecked power of the Murdaugh family in their small community in South Carolina, and brought about the undoing of a local dynasty.

"This is what happens when average people have no checks and balances," said Bill Nettles, former US Attorney for South Carolina.

"And there were no checks and balances on him."

To know South Carolina's Lowcountry, is to know the Murdaugh family name. For 86 unbroken years, from 1920 to 2006, a Murdaugh presided as the chief prosecutor for South Carolina's Fourteenth Judicial Circuit. It was the longest such stretch of family control in United States history.

"They were the law," Mr Nettles said.

For even longer, the Murdaugh men worked at the family-founded litigation firm, amassing a small fortune and cultivating their dominance in all corners of the Lowcountry.

Along the highways in this part of the state, large billboards are posted on almost every mile. Most were for fast food restaurants and prayer hotlines but many were for personal injury lawyers - a thriving industry in the Lowcountry. And by all accounts, the Murdaugh's firm - Peters, Murdaugh, Parker, Eltzroth & Detrick (PMPED) - was the best.

"They could get a verdict that would exceed the norm dramatically," said South Carolina lawyer Joe McCulloch, who has faced three generations of Murdaughs in court.

"And when I say exceed the norm - they could turn a $100,000 case into a million dollar settlement."

The Murdaugh's judicial circuit became known as a mecca for plaintiffs, spurring rumours of judicial corruption and jury tampering. At the very least, locals said, the Murdaugh's stature gave them a leg up at trial.

"When people graduated high school, they would send gifts, they paid for funerals, sent flowers to people who were in the hospital," said Eric Bland, a malpractice attorney based in South Carolina, involved in a suit against Mr Murdaugh.

"When they got in front of juries, they knew them," he said. "They salted the town with goodwill."

The rail company CSX Transportation was sued so often and so successfully by PMPED that the firm's office became known as the house that CSX built. And corporations who could avoid it reportedly skipped the area entirely.

From these two offices, as both public prosecutors and private attorneys, the Murdaughs established themselves as a de facto authority of the Lowcountry. Their influence was not wide - it did not even span the width of the state - but it was deep. In the small, insular community where they lived, residents said, the Murdaugh family ruled.

"They controlled this area for years and years," said Wally Pregnall, a retired administrator at the Medical University of South Carolina, who had driven from Charleston to see the trial up close. "The connection to the good ol' boy network, the power and the politics in South Carolina… that's all coming into play."

"We all knew them," said one waitress in town, who also didn't want to give her name, saying she didn't want to "get in trouble" for speaking against the family. She also didn't want to be recorded. "You're just going to have to remember this," she said. "They had power, dirty power. And they took it too far."

In the third week of Mr Murdaugh's trial, the former chief financial officer of PMPED Jeanne Seckinger described Alex Murdaugh's style as a lawyer. "The art of bullshit, basically," she said.

Mr Murdaugh, who joined the family firm in the late 1990s, was successful, "not from his work ethic", Ms Seckinger said, "but his ability to establish relationships and to manipulate people into settlements and clients into liking him".

According to colleagues, he was a loud and frenetic presence, always late and always in a rush, keeping different hours from the rest of the attorneys.

State and federal prosecutors - supported by testimony from Ms Seckinger and others - now say Mr Murdaugh was stealing from his firm, robbing colleagues and clients as early as 2011. He faces some 90 charges for alleged financial wrongdoing. Friends have testified that he confessed and apologised for the theft after it came to light, but he has not yet entered a plea in these cases.

The prosecutors' arguments paint a picture of fraud and theft at an almost implausible scale, and of a perpetrator convinced of his impunity. Mr Murdaugh, they allege, stole indiscriminately from colleagues and clients, the young and old, the disabled and sick.

"You look at it from afar and say 'this is not possible', there has to be something to prevent abuses and improprieties that ridiculous," said veteran journalist and South Carolina University professor Randy Covington. "But the answer is no, there wasn't."

At trial, Ms Seckinger detailed at least a dozen of these crimes. Her more than three hours of testimony began to sound like a record on loop. "Alex stole it", she said, again and again. To her right, a weary-looking bailiff appeared to fall asleep, gun still holstered to his hip.

According to the prosecution, Mr Murdaugh's exact methods varied. Sometimes he faked signatures, other times he claimed inflated expenses. Other methods were crude. He opened a personal bank account under the name "Forge", meant to impersonate a legitimate insurance company called Forge Consulting.

"Everybody just assumed they were the Murdaughs so they must be doing it right," Mr Nettles said.

For years, Ms Seckinger said, she had noticed yellow flags, small irregularities in his files. But the firm was a "brotherhood", she said. "They trusted him".

Tony Satterfield trusted Mr Murdaugh too. When Mr Satterfield's mother, Gloria - the Murdaugh's long time housekeeper - died after a fall at work, Mr Murdaugh recommended a lawyer he knew who could help them file a wrongful death suit against the family.

Mr Murdaugh's insurance company paid out to the tune of $4.4m, but the Satterfields did not receive a dime, they did not even know the case had been settled. Alex Murdaugh, in conjunction with the lawyer he had recommended, had kept it himself.

"I feel like if someone paid closer attention, they would have figured this out," said Eric Bland, the malpractice lawyer who represented the Satterfields in a suit against Mr Murdaugh. "But those kids revered the Murdaughs, they trusted him."

One year after Gloria Setterfield died, there was another fatal accident in the Murdaugh family orbit.

Paul Murdaugh, Mr Murdaugh's 19-year-old son, was aboard the family's boat late at night when it rammed into the Archers Creek Bridge in Beaufort, throwing three of the six passengers, all young adults, into the cold water below. One of them, 19-year-old Mallory Beach, was killed - her body recovered days later in a marsh several miles away.

News of the accident - the tragic death of a young woman, the presence of a Murdaugh - gripped the Lowcountry.

"I think folks were kind of like - this is going to be an interesting test of the system, a test to see if the system treats Paul any differently," said Bill Nettles. "Once this boat crash happened, it seems to me, it went outside something they could contain."

Later, all of the survivors except for Paul would testify that it had been him behind the wheel at the time of impact. But on the night, there seemed to be confusion about who was driving - Paul or his friend, Connor Cook.

Witnesses eventually testified that that confusion had a source: Alex Murdaugh. According to their testimony, Alex roamed from room to room, trying to speak to the teenagers. A nurse told investigators he looked like he was trying to "orchestrate something". Connor Cook testified that he was told to "to keep my mouth shut".

He was scared, he told lawyers, "them being who they are".

But two months later, in April 2019, Paul Murdaugh was charged with three crimes, including boating under the influence resulting in death. Looking back now, it may have been the moment Alex Murdaugh's life began to unravel.

The family of Mallory Beach hired a lawyer named Mark Tinsely to represent them in a wrongful death suit against Alex Murdaugh. Mr Tinsley, who is bearded and gruff, testified he planned to hold Mr Murdaugh "personally responsible" and seek millions in damages.

Mr Murdaugh claimed he was broke. "I didn't believe it," Mr Tinsley said.

So Mr Tinsley filed a motion to compel Mr Murdaugh to disclose his finances. A hearing on the matter was scheduled for 10 June, 2021. The disclosure would reveal his years of corporate fraud.

"The fuse was lit," Mr Tinsley said.

On 7 June 2021, three days before the hearing on his finances was scheduled, the Colleton County Sheriff's office received a call from Alex Murdaugh. His wife Maggie and son Paul had been shot, he said.

By the time the first sheriff's deputy had arrived at the family's 1,700 acre hunting estate, Moselle, Mr Murdaugh had a theory. "My son was in a boat wreck months back; he's getting threats," he said. "I know that's what it is."

For weeks, most people in the Lowcountry seemed to believe him. Mr Tinsley's case was over. "If Alex was the victim of a vigilante, nobody's going to hold him accountable," he said in court. "Sympathies had changed."

But in July 2022, more than a year later, Mr Murdaugh was arrested in the killings. By then, his life was in free fall. He had been pushed out of the family firm over evidence of theft. An investigation would find he had been confronted about missing money at the firm by Jeanne Seckinger on 7 June - the same day Maggie and Paul were killed. And he had admitted to organising a botched hit on himself so that his surviving son could collect on his life insurance.

"This may be the most outrageous thing I've seen in 30 years in South Carolina," journalist Randy Covington said.

But inside the Colleton County Courthouse, where the trial has now stretched for weeks, the atmosphere was mostly staid, looking at times like a wedding reception. Spectators in suits, sundresses and heels milled around in the moments between witnesses, passing around mints and sharing sweaters for the courtroom's cool air.

Several said they had come to see the powerful finally held to account, even as Mr Murdaugh was still apparently receiving deferential treatment. "He's chewing gum, he's talking to family… he even touched them," Eric Bland said. "For normal defendants, that doesn't happen."

But for decades, juries in the Lowcountry have sided with the Murdaugh family, issuing the settlements that made them wealthy. Alex Murdaugh's future will be decided the same way, perhaps a final test of his influence.

"Have you noticed?" said one woman, named Linda, who had driven from Hilton Head to watch and declined to give her last name. "He only cries when the jury is looking."

Subject: [Follow-up] Japanese TV Inquiry / Court documents etc. for Murdaugh Trial

Hello,

My name is Maki Nakada. I took over this project from my colleague, Shiori.

We would like to obtain any documents regarding to Alex Murdaugh cases. Would you please let us know how we could request documents?

We would sincerely appreciate it. Looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Best,

Maki Nakada

Good afternoon.

I'm following up on our inquiry sent to you a while ago regarding the Murdaugh cases.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files regarding the case?

Thanks,

Shiori

Mr. Mike Atwood,

Good afternoon.

My name is Shiori Sameshima and I work at TopSpin Creative Corporation, a Japanese television production company in New York City. Currently, we are working with Fuji Television Network, one of the major networks in Japan, in producing a documentary program entitled "Amazing Stories."

PROGRAM;
Title: Amazing Stories (Unbelievable)
Media: standard TV by Fuji Television Network, geographically restricted streaming (free non-subscription platform)
Territory: Japan only
Term: Twice in 2 years for TV broadcast, with 1 week (occasionally 1 month) of streaming each time.
This primetime weekly documentary series has featured interesting stories from around the world to educate, amaze, and inspire Japanese audiences for more than 20 years. The program is composed of actual footage, interviews, and brief reenactment scenes, as well as positive discussions among Japanese panels in the studio following the stories. Typically, shows introduce two to three stories in one hour.

We will feature the "Murdaugh Murder" Mystery in the upcoming segment and we would like to obtain any available court documents including photos/videos etc.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files?

Thank you for taking your time and let me know if you need any additional information required.

Since it's a bit urgent, we hope to hear back from you very soon.

Thanks,

Shiori

??Hello Ms. Hill

Thanks for your reply. If it isn't too much of a bother, when you sign our copy of your book, we would appreciate it if you could somehow reference the Alex Murdaugh trial. Maybe something like the following:

To Leigh and Patty,

I hope you enjoy reading these insights from my front row seat at the Alex Murdaugh trial.

Of course you may feel free to write whatever you feel is appropriate. Thank you so much!

The address is 200 Riverwind Drive, Hendersonville, NC 28739

FYI we recently stopped by Walterboro and Hampton on our way to Savannah, and we got a courthouse tour from Tracy Horvath. It was very interesting to see the courthouse where it all happened! Tracy was so accommodating to us pesky tourists. If you see her please tell her how much we enjoyed our visit.

It's such a tragic case, but so fascinating to see how someone with seemingly so much can be so foolish and throw it all away.

Good morning, Brittany,

Hope you've had a great weekend. I wanted to get this down in writing. We discussed a date to come up for the book signing and the book club for true crime discussion. I remember the time being 6:30 pm but can't remember the date! That's a result of being middle-aged ! LOL If you can reply back to me so I can put it on my calendar. I've copied my co-author and photographer and accountant on this email that are involved with our Behind the Doors of Justice group!

We are so excited!

I was wondering if you might like to chat about the possibility of you coming up to Pickens County for an Author Talk and signing. We have a true crime book club at our library who would love to read your book and hear what you have to say. On top of that, the trial garnered a lot of interest in the upstate so I believe we could get a good crowd. Let Carl, Director of the Colleton County Library, sent information over about your new book and the fact that you are doing a few book signings. I was wondering if you might like to chat about the possibility of you coming up to Pickens County for an Author Talk and signing. We have a true crime book club at our library who would love to read your book and hear what you have to say. On top of that, the trial garnered a lot of interest in the upstate so I believe we could get a good crowd. Let me know if there's a time that works for you to take a call and we can discuss it in more detail.

Hello Miho!

We are trying to work on scanning in the defense exhibits. We have had criminal court this week and have to do it before and after court. My hope is to have it completed by tomorrow early afternoon period We will also try to have videos you are requesting as well.

Thank you for your patience in this matter period I do apologize for all of the delays.

Miho,

The Buford McDowel Bodycam should not have gone to you. Please get rid of it and do not use it. The Judge, Judge Newman, specifically ordered that that Bodycam not be used if it got out. Apparently it is still on the videos that are saved.

I appreciate your attention to this.

Hi Rebecca,

Thank you very much for your great cooperation!

I will wait for those more materials and please send them to me.

I could download all of them you've kindly sent to Maki. Thank you very much.

I quickly check them and have a few questions.

The folder "MURDAUGH VIDOES", we have one bodycam video titled "Buford McDowell Bodycam Video", but it seems it's missing another bodycam video showing Alex talking about what happened (you could see this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nLAQtGBMslU).

Can you send this video as well?

And in the folder "Transfer", there is "Photos Library", which has photos showing some party held at the Rockefeller Center, and it seems it's not related. (or related??)

I really appreciate it if you could check it again and let me know if you have other "Photos library" which related to this case.

Thank you very much!!

Good afternoon.

I'm following up on our inquiry sent to you a while ago regarding the Murdaugh cases.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files regarding the case?

Thanks,

Mr. Mike Atwood,

Good afternoon.

My name is Shiori Sameshima and I work at TopSpin Creative Corporation, a Japanese television production company in New York City. Currently, we are working with Fuji Television Network, one of the major networks in Japan, in producing a documentary program entitled “Amazing Stories.”

PROGRAM;
Title: Amazing Stories (Unbelievable)
Media: standard TV by Fuji Television Network, geographically restricted streaming (free non-subscription platform)
Territory: Japan only
Term: Twice in 2 years for TV broadcast, with 1 week (occasionally 1 month) of streaming each time.
This primetime weekly documentary series has featured interesting stories from around the world to educate, amaze, and inspire Japanese audiences for more than 20 years. The program is composed of actual footage, interviews, and brief reenactment scenes, as well as positive discussions among Japanese panels in the studio following the stories. Typically, shows introduce two to three stories in one hour.

We will feature the "Murdaugh Murder” Mystery in the upcoming segment and we would like to obtain any available court documents including photos/videos etc.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files?

Thank you for taking your time and let me know if you need any additional information required.

Since it’s a bit urgent, we hope to hear back from you very soon.

Thanks,

Shiori

Hey fellas,

Hope y'all are having a good Thursday so far. I have a question about borrowing something y'all have at PRTC, but I am not sure what you call them LOL Crazy, I know!

They are called Beltrac from Lavi industries at the courthouse. We use them to partition off an area for people to either go or not go. Movie theaters use them also for lines. I was wondering if I could borrow 2 of them from PRTC for tonights book signing and bring them back to you tomorrow. I believe I saw them in the big area when walking from the PRTC front area to the back filming area.

If possible to use, I would be so appreciative.

Miho,

The Buford McDowel Bodycam should not have gone to you. Please get rid of it and do not use it. The Judge, Judge Newman, specifically ordered that that Bodycam not be used if it got out. Apparently it is still on the videos that are saved.

I appreciate your attention to this.

I could download all of them you've kindly sent to Maki. Thank you very much.

I quickly check them and have a few questions.

The folder "MURDAUGH VIDOES", we have one bodycam video titled "Buford McDowell Bodycam Video", but it seems it's missing another bodycam video showing Alex talking about what happened (you could see this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nLAQtGBMslU).

Can you send this video as well?

And in the folder "Transfer", there is "Photos Library", which has photos showing some party held at the Rockefeller Center, and it seems it's not related. (or related??)

I really appreciate it if you could check it again and let me know if you have other "Photos library" which related to this case.

Thank you very much!!

Mr. Mike Atwood,

Good afternoon.

My name is Shiori Sameshima and I work at TopSpin Creative Corporation, a Japanese television production company in New York City. Currently, we are working with Fuji Television Network, one of the major networks in Japan, in producing a documentary program entitled “Amazing Stories.”

PROGRAM;
Title: Amazing Stories (Unbelievable)
Media: standard TV by Fuji Television Network, geographically restricted streaming (free non-subscription platform)
Territory: Japan only
Term: Twice in 2 years for TV broadcast, with 1 week (occasionally 1 month) of streaming each time.
This primetime weekly documentary series has featured interesting stories from around the world to educate, amaze, and inspire Japanese audiences for more than 20 years. The program is composed of actual footage, interviews, and brief reenactment scenes, as well as positive discussions among Japanese panels in the studio following the stories. Typically, shows introduce two to three stories in one hour.

We will feature the "Murdaugh Murder” Mystery in the upcoming segment and we would like to obtain any available court documents including photos/videos etc.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files?

Thank you for taking your time and let me know if you need any additional information required.

Since it’s a bit urgent, we hope to hear back from you very soon.

Thanks,

Shiori

Our birthday surprise was successful Saturday! we had a great time.

I am reaching out to see if you happened to get some information on a bailiff of mine who would like to be a go-to person for cleaning the Wildlife Center after events. Her name is Cashay Catterton and she said she made up a packet of who she is and her info and some background info. She said she handed it to an older lady who used to be at the Center who said she was going to forward it to you. So I told Cashay I would check with you!

We think so much of Carl! He is a big blessing to Colleton County!

Yes, we are doing book signings anywhere that will have us. Currently we are in Greenville and headed to Charleston, Savannah, Mt. Pleasant and Tybee Island this week. We would love to come to Chester.

Let's discuss our dates and times and see what we can do!

Thank you for reaching out!!

Hi Debbie,

I hope you've enjoyed Tybee. We did a book signing there 2 weekends ago and sure loved the area.

If you come early tomorrow morning between 8 and 830, that's the only way we can give a tour. We have a big term of criminal court scheduled and the jurors will be coming in early along with all the attorneys.

who were accompanying them.
Around noon on this very same day, one of my clerks in the general sessions office downstairs received a phone call from an unknown caller who told her there was a bomb in the chambers of Judge Newman. My general sessions clerk was clearly upset and immediately took this information to Mike Atwood, our chief of security in the courthouse, and he alerted Judge Newman in the courtroom.
When he was notified about the bomb threat, Judge
Newman calmly told everyone in the courtroom they all needed to take a break and vacate the courtroom in an orderly and calm manner. Judge Newman never disclosed the real reason for the evacuation.
Because of Judge Newman's calm and cool demeanor, the entire courtroom and courthouse cleared out in record time. This was the second time in twenty-five years that a bomb threat occurred at the Colleton County Courthouse. Later, we would discover that the bomb threat came from an inmate at a nearby correctional facility who was trying to get out of coming to Family Court for failing to pay his child support. The bomb threat wasn't tied to Alex Murdaugh in any way.
Just minutes before the bomb threat, however, Lynn handed a book to the defense counsel paralegal to give to Alex. So, in the hustle and bustle of the courtroom

I had a conversation today with the person who emailed you and she is so very sweet. I told her your name and how you handled the call when it came in and I also told them about how they had tried calling common pleas for about an hour, but that Lauri or Polly will not answer calls that come in that say restricted lol I told the lady that Amy Shaw took the phone call and immediately took the information to our security chief, Mike Atwood, and he immediately alerted Judge Newman in the quart room and then Judge Newman quietly and calmly cleared the courthouse.

Hello!

My name is Pilar Melendez and I am a senior national reporter with The Daily Beast. I am working on a story about the February bomb threat in Colleton County Court during the Murdaugh trial. From what I understand, you answered the phone when Joey Coleman called? Would love to know how that went down, your emotions behind at the time, and your thoughts when you learned that Coleman was actually an inmate. Also, I understand that Coleman was calling the courthouse for about an hour before you picked up—would love to also know your thoughts about that!

Did he mention Murdaugh at all?

Thanks so much and hope to chat ASAP! Let me know when it is a good time tomorrow morning.

Thanks,

Pilar Melendez

Payments to Clerk of Court office staff have been identified for either additional work or reimbursement of expenses are being made out of our office accounts. Both of these practices are not allowed under County ordinance (annual budget ordinance) which requires all employee reimbursements and payroll to be processed through the Finance office. It is important that reimbursements provided to employees are paid under the guidelines set by Council in the annual budget ordinance. Additional compensation to employees is not allowed without Council approval and if approved the compensation would have to be reported on the employee's w-2 along with having any applicable taxes and retirement deductions withheld.

If you would like an employee reimbursement to be funded through your office controlled account, you can provide the Finance office a check payable to Colleton County that will be posted as an offset to the employee reimbursement and thus net out any impact to your county operating budget. If you have additional compensation for Council consideration, you will need to contact the Clerk to Council to be added to the next Council agenda.

Miho,

The Buford McDowel Bodycam should not have gone to you. Please get rid of it and do not use it. The Judge, Judge Newman, specifically ordered that that Bodycam not be used if it got out. Apparently it is still on the videos that are saved.

Hi Rebecca,

Thank you very much for your great cooperation!

I will wait for those more materials and please send them to me.

I could download all of them you've kindly sent to Maki. Thank you very much.

I quickly check them and have a few questions.

The folder "MURDAUGH VIDOES", we have one bodycam video titled "Buford McDowell Bodycam Video", but it seems it's missing another bodycam video showing Alex talking about what happened (you could see this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nLAQtGBMslU).

Can you send this video as well?

And in the folder "Transfer", there is "Photos Library", which has photos showing some party held at the Rockefeller Center, and it seems it's not related. (or related??)

I really appreciate it if you could check it again and let me know if you have other "Photos library" which related to this case.

Thank you very much!!

Mr. Mike Atwood,

Good afternoon.

My name is Shiori Sameshima and I work at TopSpin Creative Corporation, a Japanese television production company in New York City. Currently, we are working with Fuji Television Network, one of the major networks in Japan, in producing a documentary program entitled "Amazing Stories."

PROGRAM;
Title: Amazing Stories (Unbelievable)
Media: standard TV by Fuji Television Network, geographically restricted streaming (free non-subscription platform)
Territory: Japan only
Term: Twice in 2 years for TV broadcast, with 1 week (occasionally 1 month) of streaming each time.
This primetime weekly documentary series has featured interesting stories from around the world to educate, amaze, and inspire Japanese audiences for more than 20 years. The program is composed of actual footage, interviews, and brief reenactment scenes, as well as positive discussions among Japanese panels in the studio following the stories. Typically, shows introduce two to three stories in one hour.

We will feature the "Murdaugh Murder" Mystery in the upcoming segment and we would like to obtain any available court documents including photos/videos etc.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files?

Thank you for taking your time and let me know if you need any additional information required.

Since it's a bit urgent, we hope to hear back from you very soon.

Thanks,

Shiori

Hi Rebecca,

Thank you very much for your great cooperation!

I will wait for those more materials and please send them to me.

I could download all of them you've kindly sent to Maki. Thank you very much.

I quickly check them and have a few questions.

The folder "MURDAUGH VIDOES", we have one bodycam video titled "Buford McDowell Bodycam Video", but it seems it's missing another bodycam video showing Alex talking about what happened (you could see this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nLAQtGBMslU).

Can you send this video as well?

And in the folder "Transfer", there is "Photos Library", which has photos showing some party held at the Rockefeller Center, and it seems it's not related. (or related??)

I really appreciate it if you could check it again and let me know if you have other "Photos library" which related to this case.

Thank you very much!!

Best,

Miho Takeuchi

Mr. Mike Atwood,

Good afternoon.

My name is Shiori Sameshima and I work at TopSpin Creative Corporation, a Japanese television production company in New York City. Currently, we are working with Fuji Television Network, one of the major networks in Japan, in producing a documentary program entitled "Amazing Stories."

PROGRAM;
Title: Amazing Stories (Unbelievable)
Media: standard TV by Fuji Television Network, geographically restricted streaming (free non-subscription platform)
Territory: Japan only
Term: Twice in 2 years for TV broadcast, with 1 week (occasionally 1 month) of streaming each time.
This primetime weekly documentary series has featured interesting stories from around the world to educate, amaze, and inspire Japanese audiences for more than 20 years. The program is composed of actual footage, interviews, and brief reenactment scenes, as well as positive discussions among Japanese panels in the studio following the stories. Typically, shows introduce two to three stories in one hour.

We will feature the "Murdaugh Murder" Mystery in the upcoming segment and we would like to obtain any available court documents including photos/videos etc.

Could you kindly advise us on how we can request or access to these documents/files?

Thank you for taking your time and let me know if you need any additional information required.

Since it's a bit urgent, we hope to hear back from you very soon.

Thanks,

Shiori

Around noon on this very same day, one of my clerks in the general sessions office downstairs received a phone call from an unknown caller who told her there was a bomb in the chambers of Judge Newman. My general sessions clerk was clearly upset and immediately took this information to Mike Atwood, our chief of security in the courthouse, and he alerted Judge Newman in the courtroom.

When he was notified about the bomb threat, Judge Newman calmly told everyone in the courtroom they all needed to take a break and vacate the courtroom in an orderly and calm manner. Judge Newman never disclosed the real reason for the evacuation.

Because of Judge Newman's calm and cool demeanor, the entire courtroom and courthouse cleared out in record time. This was the second time in twenty-five years that a bomb threat occurred at the Colleton County Courthouse. Later, we would discover that the bomb threat came from an inmate at a nearby correctional facility who was trying to get out of coming to Family Court for failing to pay his child support. The bomb threat wasn't tied to Alex Murdaugh in any way.

Just minutes before the bomb threat, however, Lynn handed a book to the defense counsel paralegal to give to Alex. So, in the hustle and bustle of the courtroom immediately took the information to our security chief, Mike Atwood, and he immediately alerted Judge Newman in the quart room and then Judge Newman quietly and calmly cleared the courthouse.

Hi Mary,

I am copying your email with your suggestion of a donation to our finance and administration departments. We have had someone donate in the recent past to our historical windows project for the courthouse and I was not and am not involved in that process at all. I would prefer if they gave us the word on the acceptance of that happening. Our bailiffs look forward to your visit. Drive safely!

Hi Becky,

I hope you've been well! I was speaking with the Attorney General's office about gathering more state exhibits from the Murdaugh murder trial and they have directed me to you, so I am hoping you can help us.

We are seeking exhibits such as: Alex's t-shirt, the blue raincoat, firearms photos, photo evidence from the cell phones, DNA comparison sheets, and autopsy reports, evidence photos of vehicles, evidence photos from around Moselle, and photos of Alex's solicitor badge. I'm sure there's more, but watching the trial is tough to see everything. If you need additional information to process this request, please let me know.

Thank you!

John, thank you so much for your kind words. This Friday would be good for you to come back. I have some outstanding bailiffs here at the courthouse.

I have a few books for sale in Bluffton at the Kneady Cat bookstore. And I also have some books here on Main Street in Walterboro at the Colleton Coffee Shop and Twig gift shop. The soft backs are $21.99 plus tax ($23.75) and the hard backs are $39.99 ($43.20). The hard backs have more photos and are all in color.

Please let me know if you will be able to make it this Friday!

Ms. Hill,

In reviewing the various Clerk of Court bank accounts, I have noticed something that I need to bring to your attention. Payments to Clerk of Court office staff have been identified for either additional work or reimbursement of expenses are being made out of our office accounts. Both of these practices are not allowed under County ordinance (annual budget ordinance) which requires all employee reimbursements and payroll to be processed through the Finance office. It is important that reimbursements provided to employees are paid under the guidelines set by Council in the annual budget ordinance. Additional compensation to employees is not allowed without Council approval and if approved the compensation would have to be reported on the employee's w-2 along with having any applicable taxes and retirement deductions withheld.

Going forward, please refrain from making any payments to employees for reimbursements and additional compensation. If you would like an employee reimbursement to be funded through your office controlled account, you can provide the Finance office a check payable to Colleton County that will be posted as an offset to the employee reimbursement and thus net out any impact to your county operating budget. If you have additional compensation for Council consideration, you will need to contact the Clerk to Council to be added to the next Council agenda.

We have identified the following additional payments to employees that are additional compensation and will be added to their w-2s:

Gary Hale $300
Cashay Catterton $300 and $250
Tracy Horvath $200
Tony Ferrell - $200

You will also need to provide a check to Colleton County for $334.41 to cover the FICA taxes (employee and employer) and SCRS or PORS (employee and employer) as follows:

Gary Hale - $128.58
Cashay Catterton - $84.15
Tracy Horvath - $91.08
Tony Ferrell - $30.60

I appreciate your attention to this matter.

Thanks,
Jon

Cindy,

The sealed exhibits are sealed from the public but not sealed from the lawyers. Only the lawyers. You can go ahead and send the exhibit 5 to dick and Holli and Jim.

I have a few books for sale in Bluffton at the Kneady Cat bookstore. And I also have some books here on Main Street in Walterboro at the Colleton Coffee Shop and Twig gift shop. The soft backs are $21.99 plus tax ($23.75) and the hard backs are $39.99 ($43.20). The hard backs have more photos and are all in color.

Please let me know if you will be able to make it this Friday!

Oh yes, sorry it's been so slammed. If you need to put the phones on hold, please do.

I can reply back to this person and let them know that we are working on it and they will get tomorrow sometime. That ok?

Hi Becky,
I hope you're having a great day.
I will try and take care of this matter today. We have been busy with passports and phone calls. Amy has just taken her lunch break and I still have to go. I can start the process today and then finish in the morning.

Praying this is ok with you.

Hi Becky,

I hope all has been well! I wanted to let you know that the airdate for the Murdaugh documentary you participated in, has changed.

The 3 part documentary series entitled “The Fall of the House of Murdaugh” on Fox Nation will now be available on Thursday, August 31st after 5AM ET. If you are unable to view, please let me know and I can troubleshoot with our team.

Thank you again for all of your help. It is much appreciated!

Best,
-Michelle

Hi Becky,

I hope you've been well! I was speaking with the Attorney General's office about gathering more state exhibits from the Murdaugh murder trial and they have directed me to you, so I am hoping you can help us.

We are seeking exhibits such as: Alex's t-shirt, the blue raincoat, firearms photos, photo evidence from the cell phones, DNA comparison sheets, and autopsy reports, evidence photos of vehicles, evidence photos from around Moselle, and photos of Alex's solicitor badge. I'm sure there's more, but watching the trial is tough to see everything. If you need additional information to process this request, please let me know.

Thank you!

In the interest of caution you might leave the office title off the cover and indicate it inside. You could also incorporate your title in the book title, e.g., “The Trial of Alex Murdaugh from the Clerk’s Perspective.”

I appreciate the offer to join you for another murder trial, but I’ll pass unless you and Judge Newman need me.

Hello! I hope you and Ann are doing well. I have a quick question that I hope you will have a quick answer to. Should I keep my title Clerk of Court under my name on the front cover of the book?

Who knew that writing a book would be so controversial?

Kindest regards,

P.S. We are having another big trial in Colleton with Judge Newman beginning August 28. I believe court TV or Law And Crime will be the big guns in the court room. If you want to come back down we will certainly put you up for the trial. this trial is State of SC v Pangalangan et Al. Murder of def disabled and handicapped daughter.

Hope you've had a great weekend. I wanted to get this down in writing. We discussed a date to come up for the book signing and the book club for true crime discussion. I remember the time being 6:30 pm but can't remember the date! That's a result of being middle-aged ! LOL If you can reply back to me so I can put it on my calendar. Hi Becky,

Congratulations on the release of Behind the Doors of Justice! Carl, Director of the Colleton County Library, sent information over about your new book and the fact that you are doing a few book signings. I was wondering if you might like to chat about the possibility of you coming up to Pickens County for an Author Talk and signing. We have a true crime book club at our library who would love to read your book and hear what you have to say. On top of that, the trial garnered a lot of interest in the upstate so I believe we could get a good crowd. Let me know if there's a time that works for you to take a call and we can discuss it in more detail.

Ms. Hill,

Definitely not a personal check, you can write a check from your office account, which is the account the checks to the employees had been written from. I want you to know that I never intentionally try to make things more difficult or burdensome, though the IRS has very strict rules when it comes to compensation and how it has to reported.

Thanks,
Jon

Payments to Clerk of Court office staff have been identified for either additional work or reimbursement of expenses are being made out of our office accounts. Both of these practices are not allowed under County ordinance (annual budget ordinance) which requires all employee reimbursements and payroll to be processed through the Finance office. It is important that reimbursements provided to employees are paid under the guidelines set by Council in the annual budget ordinance. Additional compensation to employees is not allowed without Council approval and if approved the compensation would have to be reported on the employee's w-2 along with having any applicable taxes and retirement deductions withheld.
> Going forward, please refrain from making any payments to employees for reimbursements and additional compensation. If you would like an employee reimbursement to be funded through your office controlled account, you can provide the Finance office a check payable to Colleton County that will be posted as an offset to the employee reimbursement and thus net out any impact to your county operating budget. If you have additional compensation for Council consideration, you will need to contact the Clerk to Council to be added to the next Council agenda.

Dear Holli, Dick and Jim,

I am out of the office and we had some technical difficulties in sending Cindy and Sherry the email request for the Court Exhibits before 5 pm. They will make sure it is the first thing they do in the morning and send to you via email.

Wanted to make you aware.

My name is Keiko Shimada, a producer with Fuji Television Network in Japan. We're working on the story about the Alex Murdagh trial for an upcoming documentary.

We would like to respectfully ask if we could make copies of exhibits that were presented in the trial. I would greatly appreciate it if you could point me in the right direction where I should contact for this matter.

Also, we're hoping to have trial footage (video of actual court proceedings). I learned that it was a pool situation. Does the court have the footage that we can make copies? If not, can you please advise me where to contact?

I look forward to hearing from you. Thank you so much for your help in advance.

I am 75 and have never watched a court trial before. Not even O.J.'s!
After hearing this trial mentioned on Dr. Phil I was hooked. I watched every day not knowing the characters or how they connected. I feel I'm an expert now having been immersed since Day 1 of the trial. I'm a #1 fan of Mark Tinsley.

I found your book fascinating and would love to see all the sites mentioned and take the Court House tour. I felt the chill of the wind at Moselle and am trying to picture Maggie and Paul being that close
After being shot. Photos don't show that.

I have trouble understanding jail house calls/prison calls released with Alex and Liz being so friendly if she was indeed close to Maggie. I feel better knowing Buster collapsed in private after the verdict. I feel Marian was in a difficult position with Maggie's son listening to her testimony. I'm sure she doesn't want to lose that connection.

The question I would like to ask Paul's girlfriend and his friend Rogan? Is did Alex ever call them Pau Pau and Ro Ro before testifying? It seemed so manipulative.

Thank you for sharing your insight.

Good afternoon, Blair!

i wanted to reach out to you to see if you or Emilie may be interested in a local Walterboro event that will be coming up soon on September 16, 2023. I am trying to help a dear friend of mine promote this event as it is a passion of hers and is becoming one of mine. We would love to have a huge crowd. I have copied Karon Boatwright on this email in hopes that you two can connect. We have people from all over South Carolina and actually the U.S. who come to support this event.

This is our 3rd Annual Pound out Childhood Cancer event that will be benefiting a local organization called Courageous Kidz out of Charleston.

Pound itself is a cardio drumming workout using lightly weighted drumsticks called ripstixs.

There are over 30,000 Pound Pros through out the world and we are having many pound pros throughout the Country coming to support this important cause.

September is, by the way, Childhood Cancer Awareness Month,

You can also view the Pound website at www.poundfit.com.

Their website is www.courageouskidz.org.

I would love to fill you in and spread the word.

Hope you can help us out! Or if you know of someone with Channel 5 who can! Look forward to hearing from you!

Brittany,

Oct 16th sounds great. I can't wait. If we could move it to 6 pm , I think we are gonna need it. Lots to talk about!

Hi Becky,

Congratulations on the release of Behind the Doors of Justice! Carl, Director of the Colleton County Library, sent information over about your new book and the fact that you are doing a few book signings. I was wondering if you might like to chat about the possibility of you coming up to Pickens County for an Author Talk and signing. We have a true crime book club at our library who would love to read your book and hear what you have to say. On top of that, the trial garnered a lot of interest in the upstate so I believe we could get a good crowd. Let me know if there's a time that works for you to take a call and we can discuss it in more detail.

All the best,
Brittany

Hi Becky!!
I can't believe I missed this email also!! I hope you and your daughter are doing well!!

I am working on a story on Joey Dean Coleman, the inmate who called the bomb hoax during the Murdaugh trial, and I would love to chat with you if you have a few moments today or tomorrow?

Thanks!

Hey Pilar!

How did I miss this email? Well, we were kinda busy on March 2nd weren't we?!! LOL

Would you still be interested in talking with Aubrey, my singing daughter?

Hope you are doing well!!

Hello!

Pilar Melendez from The Daily Beast here. Requesting access to all exhibits in the Alex Murdaugh trial, including the videos from last week!

Also, is there a media list for this trial at all?

Thanks,

Payments to Clerk of Court office staff have been identified for either additional work or reimbursement of expenses are being made out of our office accounts. Both of these practices are not allowed under County ordinance (annual budget ordinance) which requires all employee reimbursements and payroll to be processed through the Finance office. It is important that reimbursements provided to employees are paid under the guidelines set by Council in the annual budget ordinance. Additional compensation to employees is not allowed without Council approval and if approved the compensation would have to be reported on the employee's w-2 along with having any applicable taxes and retirement deductions withheld.

If you would like an employee reimbursement to be funded through your office controlled account, you can provide the Finance office a check payable to Colleton County that will be posted as an offset to the employee reimbursement and thus net out any impact to your county operating budget. If you have additional compensation for Council consideration, you will need to contact the Clerk to Council to be added to the next Council agenda.

To: ashaw@colletoncounty.org <ashaw@colletoncounty.org>

Hello!

My name is Pilar Melendez and I am a senior national reporter with The Daily Beast. I am working on a story about the February bomb threat in Colleton County Court during the Murdaugh trial. From what I understand, you answered the phone when Joey Coleman called? Would love to know how that went down, your emotions behind at the time, and your thoughts when you learned that Coleman was actually an inmate. Also, I understand that Coleman was calling the courthouse for about an hour before you picked up—would love to also know your thoughts about that!

Did he mention Murdaugh at all?

Thanks so much and hope to chat ASAP! Let me know when it is a good time tomorrow morning.

Thanks,

Pilar Melendez

If you will wait on me, just a couple more days, I will be prepared to talk. Please do not talk to Neil Gordon without me. We have asked him not to talk without me, but as you know, he isn't listening. I can promise you it will be worth the wait. It will be truth. I ask you not to use this in any form what I am sending you now. Please.

Hi Teresa,

I'm sure we don't know each other, but your kind words have reached my heart and remind me of the hand that I am sadly playing with. Yes, they have targeted me and are running wild. However, the truth will win, and the light will expose their darkness.

I am going to hold my head high, as I know I have done nothing wrong. It is heartbreaking the lengths that these defense attorneys will go, and even sadder that many of the general public are not keen on how our judicial system works.

Again, thank you for your encouragement. Maybe one day we will meet. In the meantime, I will continue doing my job which I love, and fighting with all my might against these allegations.

Sincerely,

Becky

Please find in the email along with this one a request from one, Richard Webb, who lives in Germany. He is requesting certain Murdaugh trial exhibits, along with other trial documents like the sentencing sheets, juror questionnaires, etc. He even makes statements of you and Mrs. Pat. I am just not comfortable with what he is saying or requesting.

I would like to hear back from you on your thoughts of what to send and not to send, after you have read the entire email.

Hope you have a restful weekend. Look forward to hearing from you.

Kindest regards, I am

Dear Madam Hill,

I received your email message of June 21 responding to my message to Ms. Nettles requesting some exhibits and transcripts of the Murdaugh trial. In your message you asked me in what aspect am I requesting the material. I have not been unmindful of your message. In fact I have worked very hard in preparing my answer to your query; partly because the aspect in which I am asking for documents is not of a kind that I think your office is accustomed to consider, and also in preparing for answering your query, I have needed to make additional researches related to my investigating of the indictment and prosecution of Mr. Alexander Murdaugh, and the trial and sentencing proceedings;

The aspect in which I am requesting document may be perceived from the description of my work, "Studies of Constitutional Law and History as noted in the letterhead of my letter" which I sent by post to Ms. Nettles some time ago, and the attachments of my email message. I shall in this present message answer your query with the specificity that I ought to make in all honesty. But before doing so, I have found that I need to enlarge my request for documents, and also to cancel three requests. The cancellations are as follows:

As for the State's Exhibits 519 and 520 that I requested, I now withdraw that request; for I obtained those two documents from the Internet. Those two documents were introduced on February 17th as part of the Prosecution's direct examination of SLED officer Peter Rudofski – his two reports of the "Forensic Time Line," both the full and condensed report. But as I now have a copy of those two documents, I cancel my request for them. Also, I cancel my request for the GM report (State Exhibit 524) that supplements the Forensic TimeLine reports.

The following is my enlarged request for documents:

1. States Exhibits No. 310, PMPED Employment Agreement, introduced on February 7th of the trial in the State's direct examination of Ms. Jeanne Sechinger. PMPED being the law firm of which Alex Murdaugh was a partner until September 3, 2021.

2. State's Exhibits Nos. 315, 321, 330, 331, 332 and 333, and Nos. 329 and 314 (spread sheet?), and Exhibit No. 429 — all these being various "disbursement sheets" and other documents related to financial crimes allegedly committed by Alexander Murdaugh.

3. Transcripts of:

    a. Creighton Waters' Closing Arguments, March 1.

    b. John Meadors' Rebuttal on March 2nd.

    c. Defense Attorney, James Griffin's Closing Argument, March 2nd.

    d. Opening Statements of both Mr. Waters and Mr. Harpootlian made January 25th.

The requested transcripts are necessary, because there are frequent utterances by the attorneys that are not audible or clear in the trial video that is on the Internet. It is all what the members of the Jury heard in the trial and closing arguments and rebuttal, or should have heard, if they were listening carefully to everything said in the trial, that presumably resulted in their verdict. Therefore, the transcripts are necessary.

4. The document which the lead prosecutor, Creighton Waters, at the very start of the sentencing proceeding of March 3, 9:30 a.m., handed to you, the Clerk, for immediately passing up to Judge Newman on the bench, and which you then in fact passed up to Judge Newman. When Judge Newman opened the proceeding, he called on the State for some purpose. Mr. Waters responded by announcing that he has a document to give to the Court; but his statement declaring the document that he shall give to the court is inaudible in the trial video. I sense that he stated the nature of the document, but his words stating the nature is inaudible to me. I request to be informed of the title of that document, and of the nature of the document, and that I be given a copy of that document. Is that document a declaration of a decision of the State as to whether to seek the death penalty against Mr. Murdaugh? If that document is not of that nature, a copy of that documents is nevertheless requested; but also I would ask you, the Clerk, to inform me of what declaration the State has made to the Court as to whether or not it seeks the death penalty upon a conviction of Mr. Murdaugh.

5. State Exhibit 400, being the final report of Mr. Paul Greer of SLED, introduced on February 3rd.

6. The Juror Questionnaire filled out and given to the Court by the juror James McDowell.

7. State's Exhibits Nos. 165, 166, … 172 (8 exhibits), which relate to Roland Gibson phone records.

8. Defense Exhibit 140.

In addition to the documents which are enumerated above, I request some information.

A. How many “law clerks” assisted Mr. Clifton Newman for the pre-trial and trial of the indictments against Mr. Murdaugh.

B. Does the Circuit Court of Colleton County have staff attorneys or staff lawyers? And if so, how many. And were they employed to assist Mr. Newman with respect to the trial of the murder indictment against Alexander Murdaugh.

C. Judge Newman attended a colloquium held at the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law of the Cleveland State University in Cleveland Ohio on March 23. A judge of the Cuyahoga County Court of Common Pleas, Judge Brenden Sheehan, stated in the colloquy that Mr. Newman’s wife, whom he named Pat, “attended the whole entire trial, front row.” From the trial video I saw a negro woman sitting behind the prosecution attorneys that matched somewhat the figure of Mr. Newman’s wife as she was introduced to the colloquium audience by the president of Cleveland State University, and so I think it likely that that person is Mr. Newman’s wife. I saw in the trial video that woman conferring with attorney Mark Tinsley, who was one of the prosecution witnesses, and sitting besides or in back of Mr. Tinsley. Your being the clerk of the court and sitting at the desks below the Judge’s bench, do you know that Mrs. Pat Newman attended the trial in the court room for much of the trial? Was she given a preference for seating such that she did not have to wait in line for a seat as those of the general public? Did Judge Newman discuss the case with his wife during any breaks and recesses in the trial, including over-night recesses or week-end recesses? In the colloquium Judge Sheehan said that Pat Newman can answer questions about the trial, if Judge Newman cannot due to constraints on him concerning the Murdaugh case appeal that is pending?

The Items enumerated 1, 2, 4 and 7 are my priority of the requested documents, and so I wish that you would send me those particular documents quickly without waiting for your disposition of the rest of my requests.

In what Aspect am I requesting the documents?

In answering this query, I shall state in general terms that aspect, followed by stating it specifically in regards to the prosecution, trial and sentencing of Mr. Murdaugh. Later, I shall elaborate in some detail on my life’s work, so that you can well understand the aspect I have taken in my investigating the Murdaugh murder case and trial, and in requesting the documents.

Again, you asked in what aspect I am requesting the material. In answering your query, I attach some information on my background. I am an independent scientist. My researches since the year 1970, full time, have been on two lines of study: (1) The accident hazards of nuclear power plants, and (2) The Constitution of the United States of America, mainly the powers of the Congress of the United States, and of the President of the United States, and the Judicial Power vested by the Constitution in the Courts of the United States. The constitutional studies line includes my critical examination of the powers assumed by the U.S. Congresses and Presidents throughout the whole existence of the federal government under the Constitution (starting with the first Congress and George Washington’s administration, and also the powers assumed by the Judges of the Courts of the United States, and of selected State courts; particularly the State of Ohio, and the State of Minnesota (the trial of the police officers that were charged by that State with killing, and feloniously killing, George Floyd), and now the State of South Carolina (the Murdaugh “Murder Trial”).

Specifically, with respect to the Murdaugh trial, the aspect I have taken is that of examining the conduct of Judge Clifton Newman in his conduct of the pre-trail proceedings, and of the trial, and also his assumption of power to pass sentence; the conduct of the State’s prosecuting attorneys, who are chiefly the Attorney General, Mr. Allan Wilson Mr. Creighton Waters, and Mr. Meadors, in their prosecution of Mr. Murdaugh, and the conduct of the Defense attorneys, all with respect to the law of the Constitution of the United States of America, of the Constitution of the State of South Carolina, and of the principles of moral science (moral philosophy) that underlie the federal and state Constitutions, and particularly the precepts of the Law of Nature (what is naturally right) that define the ground required in accusing a man of committing a crime – namely, evidence; that is, that which makes clear a fact – or in other words, proof of the fact of the committing of the alleged crime, and so without mixture of doubt and uncertainty. My examination covers the so-called Rules of Evidence, and rules of criminal procedure, Judge Newman’s “charge” of the rules and notion of “Circumstantial Evidence,” Mr. Newman’s assumption of power to instruct the jury as to the law that applies to the charges against Mr. Murdaugh and the “evidence” given in the trial, and to confine the jury to merely listening to the testimony and seeing exhibits, thus precluding the “jurors” from examining the State’s cause and questioning witnesses and arguments in the course of the trial, the Oath actually administered to the “jurors” at the start of the trial, the true sense of the constitutional requirement that the trial of all crimes shall be by jury – the signification of the words by, and trial; the making out and issuing an “indictment”, so-called, against Mr. Murdaugh that was grounded on probable cause instead of evidence; and the (what I find to be the) illegality of Mr. Clifton Newman’s election and holding the office of judge, and thus of his presiding over the Murdaugh trial, because of the article in the current South Carolina Constitution that has imposed a requirement that the judges of the Courts of South Carolina shall be licensed attorneys, which article (I find) violates the “Republican Form of Government” guaranty of Article IV, Section 4 of the Constitution of the United States of America – the “republican form of government” being defined in the treatises on moral science that were certainly observed in the forming and writing the Constitution of the United States, as such form under which no class of persons is set over the people of the civil State. The foregoing is a partial synopsis or preview of the analysis of the Murdaugh trial that I have now completed. I am preparing to write a full disquisition of my analysis. It, as well as a disquisition on the Chauvin trial, will be appendices or references for the treatise on the Constitution of the United States of America, which I have been preparing for many years now in pursuance of my safety and welfare, which I believe will promote the safety and welfare of my fellow citizens of America. I will try in a future message to elaborate on this last point. But for now, I wish to submit my request for documents without any further delay.

Respectfully requested,

Richard E. Webb

P.S. By the way I had intended to ask you for a copy of what decrees were issued by the Supreme Court of South Carolina that ordained the Rules of Evidence for the Circuit Courts of South Carolina. However, I have requested the information from the Court Administration of the Judicial Branch, a Ms. Flemming, who provided me with sixteen pdf documents that perfectly account for the making of the Rules of Evidence. So, I need not ask you office for that documentation.

Below is the paragraph of my message that I had intended to send you with the above request for documents.

I request also a copy of each of the Supreme Court decrees (order, promulgation, or whatever they were called) that put in effect Rules 401, 402, 403 and 404 the South Carolina Rules of Evidence. I request also a copy of whatever report or paper, by whatever officer or council, or judicial branch office, as Court Administrator or Court Administration, that proposed or authored each of the Rules, 401, 402, 403 and 404, and gave any justification and/or source of moral reasons for those Rules, as any reference for their moral grounds, or scholarly grounds, such as a treatise of “the law of evidence,” or “legal” grounds, such as whatever “case law.” Or Court opinion in case decisions. I presume that the requested Supreme Court decrees and related reports were sent to each of the Circuit Courts of South Carolina. I request a copy of those decrees and all the reports to the Supreme Court that proposed and justified those Rules.

Betreff: Murdaugh Trial exhibits request

Dear Mr. Webb,

I have received your email request of the exhibits from the Murdaugh trial held earlier this year in Colleton County. I do not mind processing your request for the things that we have in our possession and that are not sealed. The transcript of the trial is still in the process of being processed. So the closing arguments of Mr. Waters will be a request that you will need to direct to S.C. Court Administration. You can email Tammie Holmes at Tholmes@sccourts.org .

I am going through the audio now on youtube of the closing arguments of Mr. Waters to see what exhibits he used. If the exhibits he used were not ordered to be under seal, then we will provide those.

I also need to know in what aspect you are requesting these exhibits. Are you with a firm, a media agency, etc.?

I look forward to hearing back from you.

Kind regards,

Rebecca "Becky" H. Hill

Mr. Brown,

I am overcome by much gratitude and thankfulness at the wonderful email of your encouragement. This attack has been tough; not going to lie. Our strength does come from our Lord Jesus and HE has held us and kept us through all of this.

I'm not sure where you live or what you do. But you have brightened my spirits and I know you are a Believer and you are doing what He has led you to do.

I can't talk about the whole case or investigation at the moment, however, in a very short time, I will be able to. I hope to reach back out to you. It will be worldwide again when there is an apology given to me from the defense team.

Kindest regards,

Becky Hill

Ms. Rebecca Hill

My name is Keiko Shimada, a producer with Fuji Television Network in Japan. We're working on the story about the Alex Murdagh trial for an upcoming documentary.

We would like to respectfully ask if we could make copies of exhibits that were presented in the trial. I would greatly appreciate it if you could point me in the right direction where I should contact for this matter.

Also, we're hoping to have trial footage (video of actual court proceedings). I learned that it was a pool situation. Does the court have the footage that we can make copies? If not, can you please advise me where to contact?

I look forward to hearing from you. Thank you so much for your help in advance.

Sincerely,
Keiko

Hi Scott,

I've been just a little busy answering allegations attacking my name and character. So I apologize for the late response.

The total for the books is $105. You can mail a check to Becky Hill 522 Dowling Avenue, Walterboro, sc 29488 if that works for you.

Thank you again for your purchases. I hope you enjoy.

Becky

Mr. Brown,

I am overcome by much gratitude and thankfulness at the wonderful email of your encouragement. This attack has been tough; not going to lie. Our strength does come from our Lord Jesus and HE has held us and kept us through all of this.

I'm not sure where you live or what you do. But you have brightened my spirits and I know you are a Believer and you are doing what He has led you to do.

I can't talk about the whole case or investigation at the moment, however, in a very short time, I will be able to. I hope to reach back out to you. It will be worldwide again when there is an apology given to me from the defense team.

Kindest regards,

Becky Hill

Ms. Hill,

Any bank that accepts deposit funds from a local government is required by State statute to furnish an indemnity bond or pledge as collateral obligations of certain obligations of the US government, the state of South Carolina or other political subdivisions. During fiscal year 2023, you moved your deposit accounts from Truist to Enterprise Bank, and as part of the audit, a collateral statement or indemnity bond from Enterprise Bank as of 6/30/2023 is required. Since these accounts are in the name of your office, if you will contact Enterprise Bank for a collateral statement as of 6/30/2023 so that I may provide that copy to the auditors.

Please let me know if you have any questions and thanks for your help.

Good morning, Ms. Megas,

I reached out to our media trial expert, Mr. Jay Bender, Esq., and this is what he explained:

The pool video is not a public record under South Carolina law as it does not come within the definition of a public record as it was not prepared, owned, used or in the possession of a public body. The pool video was provided to those news organizations present in Walterboro for the trial. If the Discovery network received pool video it should have it. If not, I would suggest contacting Court TV.

I hope that we have helped you in some way and pointed you in the right direction.

Hi Jeff,

My name is Syeth Weldon, and I am a Project Manager at SC DSS. As part of the network architecture for the Child Support System (PACSS), DSS has a Cisco ASA firewall installed in your county. We are preparing to replace the device with a newer Fortigate firewall, and we'd like to schedule some time to perform this migration. We are requesting a working session with you to verify the network configuration in your county and to detail the tasks to be accomplished to migrate our Cisco ASA to Fortigate. Finally, a schedule will be set to execute the tasks.

Thanks for your help, we hope to migrate to Fortigate devices for all the remaining counties in the next few months.
Please let me know if you have any questions.

It's sad that one man can call a press conference and accuse someone of so many lies and the whole world believes this man who has a client that is a known liar and convicted murderer. And this one man is as shady as they come. And people KNOW this. There is not one word of truth in this situation except that they did drive their Mercedes cars down dirt roads and bullied jurors. This is what happens when you mess with a Murdaugh.

Sorry for venting. I will try to let you know when we hear.

Hi Jeff,

My name is Syeth Weldon, and I am a Project Manager at SC DSS. As part of the network architecture for the Child Support System (PACSS), DSS has a Cisco ASA firewall installed in your county. We are preparing to replace the device with a newer Fortigate firewall, and we'd like to schedule some time to perform this migration. We are requesting a working session with you to verify the network configuration in your county and to detail the tasks to be accomplished to migrate our Cisco ASA to Fortigate. Finally, a schedule will be set to execute the tasks.

Thanks for your help, we hope to migrate to Fortigate devices for all the remaining counties in the next few months.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

This is not a statement, just something I wanted to share. The first 3 paragraphs are quoted from a newsource in September.

While Alex Murdaugh still insisted he didn't shoot his wife and son, Murdaugh was forced to acknowledge lying to investigators about his whereabouts.

"I lied about being down there. And I'm so sorry that I did," he said.

Murdaugh and his lawyers have cited paranoia from his alleged opioid addiction, his distrust of state investigators, and his growing suspicions as police swabbed his hands for gunpowder residue and asked about his relationships with his family. Seems to be a lot of lies that surround this entire realm.

A fair trial was 100% held in State v. Murdaugh. The Jury heard evidence for 6 weeks and came back with a verdict that they believe was true and solid. No jury tampering was done by anyone. The planning and organization done pre-trial by Court Officials, County and City law enforcement and other officials in the city was done with efficiency and crucial intention to ensure that all facets of a trial of this magnitude was done cooperatively and honestly and with great care. It is sad that a team of lawyers is allowed to weave such a tangled web of lies and try to destroy credibility in an elected official who stands on truth and is trustworthy and tenable.

Also, please see attached Motion for new trial; which is basically the same thing filed in September.

I am so sorry you feel the way you do. It's a shame you believe the defense team and Mr. Murdaugh. Let me be very clear on this.... the JURY decides the verdict. There was NO jury tampering done in this case. It is a lie straight from the mouths of Dick Harpootlian and Jim Griffin and their defense team. How lawyers are allowed to get away with defaming a person's character and career just by filing a motion and affidavits put together by strong arming people and then holding a press conference is beyond belief. And then for people like you to believe this nonsense is shallow minded and sad.

For your sake, please expand your mind and follow the facts.

Respectfully, I still feel that you don't know all of the facts and the rest of the story. I did my Clerk of Court job with fairness, truth and justice and abided by the law. I know that and I am the one who has to stand before my God for that. I'm not sure what you mean by grandstanding during the trail. That is not me in any way, shape or form. So I don't understand why you are saying that or where you are getting that from. If you knew me, you would know that. I'm so tired of the public spouting off their opinions and only operating with half of the truth. The general public has only heard from the defense side thus far. Only from Harpootlian and Griffin and Murdaugh. My side has not been presented yet. But it's coming. And I stand on the truth and boy, is it totally different from what the defense team has spun. But of course that is to be expected.

And on another note, I am donating a percentage of the proceeds to a specific place in Colleton County.

Sincerely,
Rebecca "Becky" H. Hill

It's sad that one man can call a press conference and accuse someone of so many lies and the whole world believes this man who has a client that is a known liar and convicted murderer. And this one man is as shady as they come. And people KNOW this. There is not one word of truth in this situation except that they did drive their Mercedes cars down dirt roads and bullied jurors. This is what happens when you mess with a Murdaugh.

Sorry for venting. I will try to let you know when we hear.

It's sad that one man can call a press conference and accuse someone of so many lies and the whole world believes this man who has a client that is a known liar and convicted murderer. And this one man is as shady as they come. And people KNOW this. There is not one word of truth in this situation except that they did drive their Mercedes cars down dirt roads and bullied jurors. This is what happens when you mess with a Murdaugh.

Sorry for venting. I will try to let you know when we hear.

Hi Jon,

Happy Thursday! Hope you are doing well.

Please give me your opinion on the best way to proceed with this: the outside decorations such as garland and lights needs replacing every several years. We believe this year is the year for it to be replaced. I was going to send Gary Hale to Wboro Walmart to see if they had enough of what we need, which is garland and the white outside lights. If our local Walmart doesn't have what we need or enough of it, he is going to go to Sville Lowes or Home Depot. We would like to start decorating the courthouse this weekend and next week.

Is it better for us to buy the items needed and then turn in the receipt for reimbursement? or could we get a P-card from the county to purchase? I was hoping to code the amount half from the 100 funds, and half from 126. Or if we could use 126 and 127.

If you could please advise. Thank you!

Dear Honorable Clerks of Court:

The time has come for your office to submit the annual Cost Report. The report is required of all Clerks of Court to compute a statewide unit cost reimbursement rate. The report should be completed in accordance with the instructions provided on each schedule and in accordance with the 'Uniform Guidance; 45 CFR, Part 75, Subpart E – Cost Principles'.

The accuracy of your report is vital. Your report is included in the computation of the unit cost rate used to reimburse all 46 Clerks of Court for cost incurred in performing child support services under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act. Accordingly, we recommend that you consider obtaining assistance from your County's Independent Auditors or your County's Finance Department in completing the report.

*ADDITIONAL SUPPORT DOCUMENTATION IS REQUIRED WHEN SUBMITTING YOUR REPORT TO ENSURE ITS ACCURACY. PLEASE SEE THE ATTACHED MEMO FROM THE OFFICE OF INTERNAL AUDIT. THIS MEMO WAS PREVIOUSLY SENT TO EACH CLERK OF COURT REGARDING THE NEW REQUIREMENTS FOR THE UNIT COST REPORT.

PLEASE NOTE: EXPENDITURES PAID USING ANY IV-D INCENTIVE FUNDS SHOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE UNIT COST SUBMISSION.

The report is due in our office on or before December 21, 2023. Our assistance is available, if necessary, to help complete the report.

Please contact Tamela Gidron @ Tamela.Gidron@dss.sc.gov or Joyce Brown @ Joyce.Brown@dss.sc.gov if you have any questions or concerns relative to unit cost.

Completed cost reports can be emailed (preferred) or a hard copy mailed to:

SC Department of Social Services
Child Support Services Division
Office of Financial Services
PO Box 1469
Columbia, SC 29202-1469
Attn: Tamela Gidron

*Please open and complete the attached Unit Cost worksheet for FYE 2023 using either Microsoft Excel or Word format. Please also find attached the Capital expenditure request form when including new capital items for FYE 2023. If you have any problems with opening or reading either of the attached files, please let us know and a copy will be sent to you.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Laura,

Yes. It's not a natural way of living for me and I like to live life by the Four Agreements. Remaining quiet has been both positive and negative. However, remaining quiet has given so many the impression that they can go on believing the lies that have been set forth by Dick and Jim. Every. Single.Word. they have uttered has been lies. How do lawyers, senators, i.e., get away with something like this. It's just corruption. And sadly, many people don't want the search for truth. I have a lot to say. LOL
Thanks for your time to listen and correspond! I think we could be great friends!

Stay warm and safe!

This is not a statement, just something I wanted to share. The first 3 paragraphs are quoted from a newsource in September.

While Alex Murdaugh still insisted he didn't shoot his wife and son, Murdaugh was forced to acknowledge lying to investigators about his whereabouts.

"I lied about being down there. And I'm so sorry that I did," he said.

Murdaugh and his lawyers have cited paranoia from his alleged opioid addiction, his distrust of state investigators, and his growing suspicions as police swabbed his hands for gunpowder residue and asked about his relationships with his family. Seems to be a lot of lies that surround this entire realm.

A fair trial was 100% held in State v. Murdaugh. The Jury heard evidence for 6 weeks and came back with a verdict that they believe was true and solid. No jury tampering was done by anyone. The planning and organization done pre-trial by Court Officials, County and City law enforcement and other officials in the city was done with efficiency and crucial intention to ensure that all facets of a trial of this magnitude was done cooperatively and honestly and with great care. It is sad that a team of lawyers is allowed to weave such a tangled web of lies and try to destroy credibility in an elected official who stands on truth and is trustworthy and tenable.

Also, please see attached Motion for new trial; which is basically the same thing filed in September.

Sincerely,

Dear Rebecca,

Thank you for your support back on Sept. 5th and even now today. I knew then that the allegations against me were 100% false, but my attorneys advised me to remain quiet until we could gather our evidence together. I listened to them. IF an evidentiary hearing is held, I will be able to speak after that. So until then, I remain dedicated to the position of Clerk of Court and will trust the Judicial Process.

However, to make sure all the payroll/salary information and all other information needed for each schedule of this report and the amounts/percentages are recorded correct, it may be best for you to reach out to your Finance office/director or your county auditors, just to make sure all information is being reported correct on the report. Also, at the top of each schedule that have notes in red saying salary documentation needed or documents required, you will need to include these support documents along with your report when emailing me the finish report. The information in the support documents must match what has been put on the reports, for each schedule that requires documentation.

Hi Tamela,

Good afternoon! I hope it wouldn't be too much to ask if you wouldn't mind helping Colleton with our report this year? With all that is going on and swirling about me, I don't want to do anything wrong!

Please let me know. We can talk by telephone tomorrow about it if that works for you!

Dear Honorable Clerks of Court:

The time has come for your office to submit the annual Cost Report. The report is required of all Clerks of Court to compute a statewide unit cost reimbursement rate. The report should be completed in accordance with the instructions provided on each schedule and in accordance with the 'Uniform Guidance; 45 CFR, Part 75, Subpart E – Cost Principles'.

The accuracy of your report is vital. Your report is included in the computation of the unit cost rate used to reimburse all 46 Clerks of Court for cost incurred in performing child support services under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act. Accordingly, we recommend that you consider obtaining assistance from your County's Independent Auditors or your County's Finance Department in completing the report.

*ADDITIONAL SUPPORT DOCUMENTATION IS REQUIRED WHEN SUBMITTING YOUR REPORT TO ENSURE ITS ACCURACY. PLEASE SEE THE ATTACHED MEMO FROM THE OFFICE OF INTERNAL AUDIT. THIS MEMO WAS PREVIOUSLY SENT TO EACH CLERK OF COURT REGARDING THE NEW REQUIREMENTS FOR THE UNIT COST REPORT.

PLEASE NOTE: EXPENDITURES PAID USING ANY IV-D INCENTIVE FUNDS SHOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE UNIT COST SUBMISSION.

The report is due in our office on or before December 21, 2023. Our assistance is available, if necessary, to help complete the report.

Please contact Tamela Gidron @ Tamela.Gidron@dss.sc.gov or Joyce Brown @ Joyce.Brown@dss.sc.gov if you have any questions or concerns relative to unit cost.

Completed cost reports can be emailed (preferred) or a hard copy mailed to:

SC Department of Social Services
Child Support Services Division
Office of Financial Services
PO Box 1469
Columbia, SC 29202-1469
Attn: Tamela Gidron

*Please open and complete the attached Unit Cost worksheet for FYE 2023 using either Microsoft Excel or Word format. Please also find attached the Capital expenditure request form when including new capital items for FYE 2023. If you have any problems with opening or reading either of the attached files, please let us know and a copy will be sent to you.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Dear Morgan,

The Colleton County Courthouse is a beautiful courthouse. Lots of rich history and the restoration of 2008 has maintained and preserved much of its patina.

You are welcome to come and tour the courthouse anytime between 9:00 am and 4:00 pm during the workweek. If there is court going on, it will limit the touring in certain areas of the courthouse and the number of people who can give you a tour. You can call ahead or email before you come when you know the approximate date you will be arriving.

We look forward to seeing you. Thank you for your interest in our history in the state of South Carolina and the County of Colleton.

Hi Brittany!

Happy Friday! I wanted to touch base with you about the date in January we tentatively talked about for another book signing. I believe it was January 16, 2024. I am going to need to postpone that also. If we can look at April 2024, that would be a better timeframe I believe.

Let me know your thoughts!

Hope you are well!

Laura,

Yes. It's not a natural way of living for me and I like to live life by the Four Agreements. Remaining quiet has been both positive and negative. However, remaining quiet has given so many the impression that they can go on believing the lies that have been set forth by Dick and Jim. Every. Single.Word. they have uttered has been lies. How do lawyers, senators, i.e., get away with something like this. It's just corruption. And sadly, many people don't want the search for truth. I have a lot to say. LOL
Thanks for your time to listen and correspond! I think we could be great friends!

This is not a statement, just something I wanted to share. The first 3 paragraphs are quoted from a newsource in September.

While Alex Murdaugh still insisted he didn't shoot his wife and son, Murdaugh was forced to acknowledge lying to investigators about his whereabouts.

"I lied about being down there. And I'm so sorry that I did," he said.

Murdaugh and his lawyers have cited paranoia from his alleged opioid addiction, his distrust of state investigators, and his growing suspicions as police swabbed his hands for gunpowder residue and asked about his relationships with his family. Seems to be a lot of lies that surround this entire realm.

A fair trial was 100% held in State v. Murdaugh. The Jury heard evidence for 6 weeks and came back with a verdict that they believe was true and solid. No jury tampering was done by anyone. The planning and organization done pre-trial by Court Officials, County and City law enforcement and other officials in the city was done with efficiency and crucial intention to ensure that all facets of a trial of this magnitude was done cooperatively and honestly and with great care. It is sad that a team of lawyers is allowed to weave such a tangled web of lies and try to destroy credibility in an elected official who stands on truth and is trustworthy and tenable.

Also, please see attached Motion for new trial; which is basically the same thing filed in September.

Sincerely,

I went back over the last 10 years and looked through the expenses in the Clerk of Court in both the general fund and federal funds to see how Christmas decorations have been handled. Given that the courthouse is a prominent building in Walterboro I understand the desire to decorate the building as compared to other county buildings which are typically not decorated. What I found was that over the last 10 years there have been no county or federal funds spent on replacement of Christmas decorations at the Courthouse. I am unsure how Ms. Grant handled the replacement of decorations as may have been needed , though my thought is that she used her clerk funds (office or Xerox) since these are at the Clerk's use for any office related expenditure.

We believe this year is the year for it to be replaced. I was going to send Gary Hale to Wboro Walmart to see if they had enough of what we need, which is garland and the white outside lights. If our local Walmart doesn't have what we need or enough of it, he is going to go to Sville Lowes or Home Depot. We would like to start decorating the courthouse this weekend and next week.

Good afternoon, Mr. Lasdun,

The only exhibits we have in our possession are what was entered during the trial. The ladies have gone through the exhibits list and do not see any record of life insurance policies that were admitted during the trial. That doesn't mean that they weren't produced during discovery. There are many times instances where exhibits are there but not admitted into evidence.

If you would like to explore further, you are welcome to contact the AG's office. I believe their information is online.

Best wishes,

Dear Honorable Clerks of Court:

The time has come for your office to submit the annual Cost Report. The report is required of all Clerks of Court to compute a statewide unit cost reimbursement rate. The report should be completed in accordance with the instructions provided on each schedule and in accordance with the 'Uniform Guidance; 45 CFR, Part 75, Subpart E – Cost Principles'.

The accuracy of your report is vital. Your report is included in the computation of the unit cost rate used to reimburse all 46 Clerks of Court for cost incurred in performing child support services under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act. Accordingly, we recommend that you consider obtaining assistance from your County's Independent Auditors or your County's Finance Department in completing the report.

*ADDITIONAL SUPPORT DOCUMENTATION IS REQUIRED WHEN SUBMITTING YOUR REPORT TO ENSURE ITS ACCURACY. PLEASE SEE THE ATTACHED MEMO FROM THE OFFICE OF INTERNAL AUDIT. THIS MEMO WAS PREVIOUSLY SENT TO EACH CLERK OF COURT REGARDING THE NEW REQUIREMENTS FOR THE UNIT COST REPORT.

PLEASE NOTE: EXPENDITURES PAID USING ANY IV-D INCENTIVE FUNDS SHOULD NOT BE INCLUDED IN THE UNIT COST SUBMISSION.

The report is due in our office on or before December 21, 2023. Our assistance is available, if necessary, to help complete the report.

Please contact Tamela Gidron @ Tamela.Gidron@dss.sc.gov or Joyce Brown @

Joyce.Brown@dss.sc.gov if you have any questions or concerns relative to unit cost.

Completed cost reports can be emailed (preferred) or a hard copy mailed to:

SC Department of Social Services
Child Support Services Division
Office of Financial Services
PO Box 1469
Columbia, SC 29202-1469
Attn: Tamela Gidron

*Please open and complete the attached Unit Cost worksheet for FYE 2023 using either Microsoft Excel or Word format. Please also find attached the Capital expenditure request form when including new capital items for FYE 2023. If you have any problems with opening or reading either of the attached files, please let us know and a copy will be sent to you.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

The planning and organization done pre-trial by Court Officials, County and City law enforcement and other officials in the city was done with efficiency and crucial intention to ensure that all facets of a trial of this magnitude was done cooperatively and honestly and with great care. It is sad that a team of lawyers is allowed to weave such a tangled web of lies and try to destroy credibility in an elected official who stands on truth and is trustworthy and tenable.

Subject: Annual IRS Disclosure Awareness Training - Confidentiality of Federal Tax Information (FTI)

To All Honorable Clerks of Court, Deputy Clerks of Court and Child Support Services Division Contract Employees,

The purpose of this email is to remind all contractors and Clerks of Court staff of the need to maintain the confidentiality of all information received from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). Federal Law prescribes that the willful unauthorized access or inspection of tax returns and return information can result in severe penalties, including imprisonment of up to one year, a fine of up to $1,000, dismissal from employment, and the costs of prosecution. It is also unlawful to willfully disclose tax returns and return information to any person except as authorized in IRC Section 6103. Any violation of disclosure shall be a felony punishable by a fine in any amount not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment of not more than 5 years, or both, together with the cost of prosecution.

Verification and Disclosure of Information: Section 6103(1)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code permits the IRS to disclose return information to federal, state, and local child support enforcement agencies for the purpose of establishing and collecting child support obligations and locating individuals owing support obligations. The child support enforcement agency may not disclose federal return information to third parties or in litigation relating to establishing or collecting child support obligations. However, if the information is verified by an independent source, the information from the other source may be disclosed.

Federal Tax Information (FTI) is any return or return information received from the IRS or secondary source, such as SSA, Federal Office of Child Support Services or Bureau of Fiscal Service. FTI includes any information created by the recipient that is derived from return or return information. The return information currently defined and provided by the IRS for tax intercept is as follows:

Amount collected

Return indicator

Injured spouse indicator

Tax or processing year

The first attachment is an IRS Disclosure Matrix that tells you what FTI can be disclosed to whom and the limitations and conditions for disclosing FTI.

Incident Response and Incident Reporting:

If you discover or receive notice that Federal Tax Information (FTI) has been shared in an unauthorized manner, then you must tell your immediate supervisor, regional director, assistant director, or division director and make a report immediately to the SCDSS Incident Response Team. Response time is critical in such situations, and the report must be made directly to the SCDSS Chief Information Security Office (CISO) as soon as you are made aware of an unauthorized disclosure. If you are in doubt about whether to report the incident, DO report. Do NOT wait until the next business day. The CISO Team contact information is:

Telephone: 803-898-8085 Email: Information Security at DSS ISHelpDesk@dss.sc.gov

Please thoroughly review the attached Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Exhibits 1, 4 and 5: Section 6103, “Confidentiality and Disclosure of Returns and Return Information”; IRC Section 7213 and 7213A, “Sanctions for Unauthorized Disclosure and Access”; and Section 7431, “Civil Damages for Unauthorized Inspection or Disclosure of Returns and Return Information.”

As required by the IRS, all newly hired Clerks of Court employees and CSSD contractor employees that have access to FTI must view the IRS Disclosure Awareness training video online at https://www.irsvideos.gov/Governments/Safeguards/SafeguardsSecurityAwarenessTrainingForChildSupport and sign DSS Form 2723 (Certification of Annual IRS Awareness Briefing, see attachment #2). The IRS requires all Clerks of Court and Contract employees provide the CSSD with a copy of the DSS Form 2723 signed by all their employees that have access to FTI.

Please use the attached electronic version of DSS Form 2723 for each of your employees with FTI access*. Upon completion of DSS Form 2723 please return the signed forms by email to Glenn.Hastie@dss.sc.gov or Debbie.Bowers@dss.sc.gov by December 1, 2023. If you are unable to return the forms by email you may send them via regular mail (SC Department of Social Services, Child Support Services Division, Attn: Glenn Hastie, P.O. Box 1469, Columbia, SC 29202-1469).

If you have questions, please contact Debbie Bowers, Clerk of Court Liaison, at 803-724-5774 or by email at Debbie.Bowers@dss.sc.gov.

*DSS will no longer be sending the pre-printed forms unless requested

Cindy, Samantha lions is going to come this afternoon to pick up check. I told her that I would ask you to put it in an envelope and put her name on the outside and give it to the bailiffs so that way all she would have to do is just come to the front door and ask them for it. Thank you

Good morning, Buddy,

It has come to my ears that a gentleman by last name of Mizzell is coming to the courthouse as Court security on Dec 18th.

Are you able to meet anytime today here at th courthouse with m, Gary hale, Tracy and Tim? If this is true and is the case, I would like for us to talk and have clear intentions and lines ad duties of bailiffs and deputies.

If you could please let me know a good time for you, I will appreciate it.

Kind regards,

Good afternoon, Sheriff Hill,

I hope you are well. I would like to recommend to you Tim Black as the Courthouse Security Supervisor. He does a great job here and would be a great fit as everyone is already comfortable with him and knows him.

I also have a gentleman by the name of Jim Solvik, previous LEO and security, who is now retired and has put his resume in for a bailiff position. This would help with my positions of bailiff if Mr. Black assumed that role as well.

Sincerely,

Becky H. Hill

Hi Brittany!

Happy Friday! I wanted to touch base with you about the date in January we tentatively talked about for another book signing. I believe it was January 16, 2024. I am going to need to postpone that also. If we can look at April 2024, that would be a better timeframe I believe.

Let me know your thoughts!

Hope you are well!

Amy and Cindy, good morning,

Can you please keep Hear me and keep something close to your heart and inThoughts and prayers.

Yes, I know that you have noticed a few things that I have taken down out of the office and put in boxes.
Truly, that is only because I am scared. I am just not sure what is happening. Nothing has happened. I am just downsizing in case I get a phone call. Or a letter in the mail telling telling me to step down.
I haven't done anything, But with the way that this crazy case is going, I am not sure of anything except that my God, is still in control. No matter what and that I love ya.
I will probably see you all Soon. I have a good friend who is Having surgery for a masectomy. Please hang in there and keep this to yourself. If you need me, i'm a phone call away

Rebecca,

Thank you so much for this. I've been advised by my attorneys to remain silent until such a time comes to talk. It's been very hard. I've been convicted by the court of public opinion --- no innocence until proven guilty. I know my truth and I stand strong (some days) with my head high. There is much corruption here in the 14th Circuit. I believe you should write a book entitled "Countdown to Corruption in the 14th Circuit".

The Honorable Gerald C Smoak Jr

Dear Sir:

I am completing a history of the South Carolina county courthouses. I am requesting permission to photograph the interior and main County Circuit Court courtrooms in the Colleton, Hampton and Jasper County courthouses on the afternoon of Tuesday January 23, 2024.

I have completed a number of the courthouses in South Carolina including the South Carolina Supreme Court and Court of Appeals. It takes me about 5 minutes or less. As a lawyer for 55 years I am aware of court rules and I do not photograph people or documents or courtroom that are in use. My photos are made available at no charge.

You can see your courthouses on my website by searching "Deacon Courthouses".

Thank you

Hey Cindy!

Please see the email above (or below) from Samantha Lyons. She has attached her receipts and listed everything she bought for decorating. She has listed her hours and time for all that was involved. She is coming back after Christmas to pack everything up, which I will help her if possible and if needed.

We need to pay her for her time involved. Would $15 an hour be a good figure? It would come up to be $450.

So $442.01 + $450.00 = 892.01 Could we round it off to $900?

Please give me your thoughts.
