NARRATIVE	On 3/11/2024 I responded to 8756 Hwy 17 Byp which is the East Coast Honda dealership in the Myrtle Beach section of Horry County in reference to a harassment. Upon my arrival I spoke with the victim which advised she was just out with one of our officer's getting a report for an unknown person slashing her tires. She advised the officer helped change her tire and then she went to the gas station for gas and then straight to East Coast Honda to get her tire fixed. She advised while at the gas station, the suspect in this incident showed up next to her at the pump trying to talk to her, she told him to go away she does not want to talk and then when she pulled her phone out to record he sped off. The victim then leaves and goes to East Coast Honda and the suspect showed up again, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] While I was out with the Victim, she received a No Caller ID call which ended up being the suspect, the suspect was advised that the victim does not want any further contact and if he proceeds then warrants may possibly be written up. The suspect acknowledged the advisory by saying ok(on BWC). The victim advised me she was afraid for her life. She also advised she blocks his numbers and still gets calls and texts from him on other numbers. After clearing the call and my departure

from the Honda dealer ship, the victim had texted me and stated that the mechanics had found a tracking device on her vehicle. About an hour later she had notified me that she was at the Magistrates office trying to get a restraining order, I asked the victim if I could come get the GPS from her and she said yes. While I was standing out front of the magistrates office with the victim a white in color Honda accord had slow rolled down Scipio Ln in front of the Magistrates office and the victim stated that was the suspect, in her car driving by. The vehicle then sped up and drove off.

Nothing further
