I further state that there is probable cause to believe that the defendant named above did commit the crime set forth and that probable cause is based on the following facts:

On October 15, 2020, in Kershaw County, S.C., Johnathan Lewis Goldsmith, while employed as a deputy sheriff with the Kershaw County Sheriff's Office, did willfully and dishonestly fail to properly and faithfully discharge the duties of his position imposed upon him by law by engaging in behavior that was willful and dishonest. During an incident where the victim, Tony Sims, was demonstrating noncompliance, Goldsmith used an unreasonable amount of force against Sims. Goldsmith unnecessarily struck Sims with closed fist strikes to the abdomen, the head and neck area, utilized a conducted electrical weapon multiple times to deliver an electric shock to the neck area of Sims and closed the patrol car door on Sims' leg several times, causing Sims to become unconscious, receive a fractured jaw, injury to his neck, and removal of several teeth. Facts to establish the above charge against the defendant are based on witness statements, KCSO Body Worn Camera video footage, and the defendant's incident report.
